On behalf of my husband Maurice and Sharon Almon we wanted to take this opportunity to say when we relocated to Georgia.in 1999 Charnita and Eugene reached out to us at Stephenson Middle school. We met their lovely family and our daughters played basketball together. We will always remember Camille's beautiful smile! Our prayers are with the family!

I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings to us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you to keep in mind Jesus' words recorded at John 14:1..."Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

My family and I will like to extend my condolence to the Braxton family and friends. Even though I was not honor to meet Camille I was honor to hear so many wonderful things about her. I pray for strength and love to overcome your hearts during this difficult time.

I am very sorry for your loss. Although I did not know Camille, it certainly seems like she was bright and charismatic. No doubt, she is truly missed. At Isaiah 33:24; God promises us that soon "no resident will say: “I am sick". I hope that you are able to take comfort in this verse, and the precious memories of Camile.

I would like to send my condolences to you for your loss. I know this is a difficult time for your loved ones, but the bible gives us comfort in assuring us that one day sickness, pain and death will no more. (Revelations 21:3-4) The Bible also comforts us in knowing our loved ones are no longer suffering but are in a sleep-like state.(John 11:11-14, 23-26) I hope these scriptures will be encouraging for you and bring you comfort throughout your day.
