I remember when you were born. The excitement in your grandmother, Mabel's voice and the love she gave you. I will remember your first steps. You will remain in my family's heart as long as we live. Rest in peace little cousin.

I did not have the pleasure of knowing Jahmari but I know and love his aunt Melba. I pray that God embrace Jahmari's family and friends with his Comfort and Peace and when your hearts are too heavy to bear, be quiet and call on Jesus for he is walking this journey with you. Hang on to the precious memories and reflect on them.

Jahmari, I never got the opportunity to meet you. You were a part of Georgia Power Company, which means that you are family. Your death touches me even though we have never met, because we are family. I pray for the Loved ones that you leave behind:

 That God will give them Peace that Surpasses all understanding.*
 Grace to go on and fight through the difficult days, months and years ahead because* you are no longer on this side of Glory.
 Joy to remember your loving presence as they cherish the memories of your short time* here.
 Healing to deal with their heartache.*
 Patience because the pain doesn't leave as quickly as they may need it to.*
 Love to keep on loving God and each other as He sees them through this difficult time.*

Your family is truly in my thoughts and prayers!
Rest in Peace Jahmari!
