“ To John And Kierstyn, extending my deepest condolences to you in the loss of your wife/mother. I've worked with Aundria for the last 7 years and what i know without a doubt is she loved her family. “ Man Aundria excepted me with open arms soon as I step foot in Kaiser and even gave me a Nick name like she does everyone. She made it her issue to constantly check up on me and my family. She was such a great person and the definition of keep it real. Some people you can never forget and she will be one of them.
Blessings to the Gay family during these trying times. She will truly be missed.

“ Dearest family of Aundria’s, I extend my heartfelt condolences and offer fond memories of Aundria in celebration of her life. I worked in Georgia with Aundria about three years. From the moment we met she embraced me and immediately showed her love. While she teetered on my what my first “Southern” name should be she shared that she never forgot once she gave one. To my shock she began reciting the “Southern” assigned names of her work family. She was a remarkable human, a wonderfully positive and cheerful woman, and a sweet spirit. Several weeks later she pinged me about a work matter and addressed me by my “Southern” name (I’m chuckling as I type this) and that’s when I realized how impactful she was to people. Aundria took the time to make each of us feel seen, heard, and appreciated. She laughed with her whole body and soul. I will miss Aundria on our video calls and when we can gather again, but take solace in knowing her memories are with us forever. Rest in Power Aundria. Yours truly, “Izella Wilhemina” Andrews

“ Aundria I will miss your smile and our conversations about family and life goals, I know you truly loved your family. I will always remember the name you gave me Maybelline and always in closing say "Love You Much". Rest in peace my friend, God has called you to a better place.

To the Gay family may God continue to give you peace and strength, Aundria was truly loved.

“ Aundria was a beautiful person inside and out. I'm going to miss everything about her. Her personality, smile, laugh, and sense of style. I'm so glad I was able to meet Mr. John and Kierstyn today. She loved them more than life itself. The only question I have is, how did she remember everyone's nickname? She ended the majority of her instant messages and emails with "I love you", and that's how I'll end my message today.

I Love You,
Pearlie Mae Zelda

Erica Montgomery - September 25 at 05:27 PM

“ Aundria was my co-worker and friend. She made me laugh from the first 5 minutes I met her. She advised that I was no longer Becky and my new "old lady" name is Mabel Ruth. She could make you laugh with just a look. Professionally, she was what we call a SME, a Subject Matter Expert. She knew the in's, the out's, the what-have-you's, the what-the-hecks?, she knew it all and how to get around it, above it or over it. She provided a multitude of years of service to Kaiser Permanente and made many friends along the way. We are suffering a great loss. She will be so dearly missed.

My colleague and I came to the visitation today, however, we felt taking up room during the service might be considered selfish during this pandemic as this is a time for family.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to her husband, daughter and family. I wish you peace during this difficult time.

May you rest in peace sister.
Love,
Your Mabel Ruth

“ Aundria was a truly beautiful and genuine person inside and out. Always honest and sincere. I was trying to remember my southern name she had given each of us at work and all of a sudden I remembered one night I was LulaBelle. She had a fun, loving spirit and she cared so deeply about the dreams and goals of her husband and daughter. She was very proud of her family. Honored to help her father and sister care for her mother. She will be deeply missed. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and close friends. May her soul rest in eternal peace.

“ John,

I am so sorry for your loss. It is hard to imagine how difficult this must be for you and Kierstyn. And, for you to be facing this so soon after your dad's passing this year is beyond words. We know that in Christ all is bearable -- but until we realize His kingdom fully within ourselves know that we have family, friends and each other to share those difficult moments of the journey. I am here for you, bruh! Please don't hesitate to reach out. May Aundria's soul receive a heavenly embrace from Mr. Gay and our Lord Jesus Christ.

“ Aundria was an amazing woman, coworker and friend, she and I worked in different parts of the country but we would talk for hours laughing and crying over different things. I loved her positive outlook on everything and the way she made everyone feel like family. I will miss her greatly. “ My heart aches knowing such a wonderful, spiritual, and kind-hearted soul as left us far too soon. I will always cherish our tearful and happy memories we shared those early mornings at KP about our Mothers and how much we miss them, families, pets, life goals, and hopeful futures. I will miss you dearly my sweet friend and will always be your "Bubba Cephus"! God obviously has an important plan for you.

To the Gay Family: Though my words can do little, please know my thoughts and prayers are with you, and we all share your loss and void.....but will always have our wonderful memories of her.

All my Love,

“ My sincerest condolences to Audria's family and friends.

Although, we did not work in the same office, but for the same team we developed a nice east coast/west coast working relationship. In one of our talks I learned she and my daughter shared the same birthday and I remember her working late to make she was able to enjoy her birthday, which I know is coming up in a few weeks and I am sad she won't be here with us.

My fondest memory of her is the sound of her soothing voice saying "hey pumpkin" when we spoke on the phone.... she will be greatly missed.

Georgina Ruano - September 25 at 11:07 AM

“ I was her Lotta Mae and she my Agatha Louise. I am truly grateful that God allowed our paths to cross and that we stayed in touch with one another. Aundria was a true gem - a woman of faith who always showed love and inspiration to others. You've earned your wings good and faithful servant! I love you my sister and friend! You will always hold a special place in my heart.

To the Gay family, her wings were ready, and I share in your sentiment, that our hearts are not! May God continue to bless, strengthen, and comfort you in the days, months and years ahead!

“ Where in the world do I start? I am at a loss, but I find comfort in knowing that you are resting with Jesus at this very moment. Your soul is at rest. I won't hear you saying "Hey my Pammy Pam" anymore, but I can hear your voice in my heart. Aundria, your smile was as bright as a diamond. You kept going when others would have given up. I thank God for our paths crossing and you will forever live in my heart. To the Gay family, Heaven has truly gained an Angel and she will be our Guardian Angel until we meet again. Prayers, Hugs and Kisses to you all. I love you Aundria!!! I still need you to sing those Soprano notes from heaven. LOL

Pamela D Oglesby - September 25 at 10:00 AM

“ John my prayers are with you and the rest of the family. Find strength in knowing that God will give you His strength and His peace during this most difficult time. Weeping may endure for a night but joy will come in the morning. When you think of Aundria, the memories will be great especially when a smile comes before a tear. Know that she is in a better place and she will always be with you. God will wipe your tears and He will always have His hands on you.

“ Words can't express the emptiness in my stomach upon hearing of the loss of my business partner, friend and sister, Mrs. Aundria Gay. A smile that lit a room, a wit that was second to none, a power that was unmatched, a sense of humor that was down right funny and a heart that was of pure gold.

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We can take comfort in knowing she is in no more pain and is at peace in our heavenly father's arms.

Heaven just got classier, sassier and bossier all in one swoop. We love, cherish and miss you and we know you are now as you used to say: "just peachy" May God bless your soul and provide comfort and healing for your family. Rest easy champion “ John and Kierstyn, my heartfelt condolences to you. I'm so heartbroken that my beloved sister is gone. From freshman year at Tuskegee, we've known each other and I always cherished the nickname she gave me!! It makes me smile when I think of her calling me that, again, earlier this summer. Aundria fought mightily and although she lost the battle, she's won the war and is resting in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May that knowledge be a source of comfort in the days ahead. Love you both.

Dee Bolton - September 25 at 09:10 AM

“ Aundria, you were so much more than a fiend. You were chosen family. I will deeply miss you calling me pumpkin head or apple head. Always a kind word to me and asking after my family. Your concern and love shone through everything you did. There is a special place in my heart where you will always remain. I will forever be your Rubynetta-Lou.

To the Gay family, My deepest condolences to you at this most difficult time. May Audria's light and love ever be present in your hearts.

I can still hear your voice saying things like, "Effie, how are you sweetie pumpkin?" or "Well now, what the wocka-flock?" Your smile, beautiful eyes and sassy ways will live with me forever. I'll continue to treasure all of the memories, fun times and crazy conversations we've had. The Musketeers will not be the same without you. When I get to heaven, I'll be sure to ask for "Agatha Louise" and tell them that "Effie" is here to see her. Oh, and please save a little bit of Eve for me.

“ Aundria was one of the most amazing women I crossed paths with. She was one of the first people I met when I started working at KP. Even though I'm in Colorado, she treated me as if I was right there with her. Anytime I'd reach out she'd say "Hey Pumpkin or Hey Diva" and would immediately brighten my day!
