“ My heart is with Delmas & his family. He was a genuinely wonderful human, and left far too soon.

I am so grateful for the tiny moment of impact we had. He shared his deep love of records with me and even helped me find a set-up of my own. He was an exceptional cook, so much so that I had to beg him for the recipe of a chicken dish. He had a way of being that was magnetic and calming all at once. He really was such a dear person.

Delmas, wherever you are, I hope your heart and body are truly at rest. Your legacy will live on through the many gifts you left behind.

“ Delmas's self-assigned role as social butterfly and authentic friend was well-filled! I have had many, many good conversations with him about SO many things: from thought-provoking to problem-solving. His ultimate dream was to fill a need he had observed. He planned to advise and support young military personnel transitioning to managing their money and life after serving their country. He is missed by so many.

“ My deepest condolences to Delmas' family and friends. I worked with him for 9 years at TG and he was a thoughtful, caring, compassionate tech who always wanted to learn and care for patients at the highest level. He was a wonderful guy to work with--always pleasant, professional, smart. He will be sorely missed.

“ I met Delmas while working at TG. He brought me under his wing and helped me out more times than I can even count. When we would be having a rough morning, we would look at each other and hug it out. I will miss those hugs. I will also miss his laugh, there is nothing better than hearing his laugh - his bend at waist while laughing. It was truly the best. He genuinely cared for so many and so many loved him back.
I'm thankful we became friends and I will treasure all the laughs we had. We will all miss him.

“ To his family, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Know that many others grieve with you. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to know this dear man. He had great integrity as a person but what I remember most was his unfailing kindness. He always had a gentle word for a patient or an offer of help for a colleague. Though he certainly could have been imposing, I always respected him for his choice to be gentle. Many times at the hospital when my temper would rise I would think I need to just be like Delmas. He will always be my example of kindness to follow. I will miss his smile so much.

“ Delmas was such an amazing man ...

He was a valued member of the imaging section at TG. I enjoyed our conversations and loved getting a “rise” out of him . His smile and voice live so vividly in my mind .

I wish all of you , friends and family, my sincere condolences,; I wish you love and eventual peace.

So sad....

“ My condolences to all family, friends and coworkers grieving the loss of Delmas. One of my favorite stories of Delmas is when he had this older patient who he really connected with. He asked me if we had any stuffed animals and I grabbed one for him. When he gave it to the lady she was so happy. The joy from both of them from this one simple gesture was so special to see. I will never forget the expression on his face of pure happiness. It is one that I bring up in my mind as I grieve the loss of him. I remember when he babysat one of his friends kids. How happy he was to help out and be able to spend time with them. I remember when he discovered his love of vinyl records. He would be super excited to share his most recent find and how it sounded. “Can you hear the difference?!!” I could barely, if at all, but his ear would be able to hear it. There are so many memories and I will miss making more with him. I will always have him in my heart walking with me. Delmas was loved by so many and he will be truly missed.

“ Hey I’m Orion Kim’s son I had some good memories with Delmas and he taught me about radios and Rc cars. I loved how much he loved that type of stuff because it made me want to learn more about it. I remember even playing Xbox with him online with his friends and that was pretty fun. I wish he was still here today I miss him and I know we would have had more cool memories.

I know he’s up there right now jamming to music and doing everything he ever wanted. I hope his family is doing alright too.. Rest In Peace Delmas we will always miss and think of you.

“ Im writing this for Delmas’s family by name and blood, his work family (im a part of) and to you Delmas.

I remember our last conversation and the last look you gave me. I remember and very much appreciated your presence in the hallway and nod of your head in support of meetings i attended. Sometimes your gestures spoke the loudest and were felt to the core.

We didnt always agree on everything but we did agree on doing what was right and what was safe and i knew i could count on you for that.

It is just wrong you are gone.

We will continue our one sentence debates when i see you again. Peace be with you and the families you leave behind.

“ I remember when I met a young Delmas, new to Tacoma General Hospital, and invited him to Thanksgiving dinner. It was the first of many Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners at our house or my sisters house. . He became another member of my family. Condolences to his family. I hope you find comfort knowing that he was loved and cared for here in Washington.

“ I worked with Delmas for about 7 months but it was long enough to see his shining spirit. He had a sense of humor that I looked forward to every day. When he smiled, he lit up the room. I am blessed and honored to have had the opportunity to work with him.

“ Delmas smelled a candle that I made and decided he NEEDED one made at maximum concentration. As much scent as I could get the wax to hold. He wanted Orange Blossom, Black Currant, "anything earthy"... so I made a batch of candles and one I called the Delmas (blend of a few scents that I thought he'd like). I told him to take 20% off for a friends and family discount. Not only did he NOT take the discount, he gave even more money than he was supposed to and refused to take it back. "Payment for my efforts."

During the summer, he knew that my son was bored at home while I was working. He offered to pay him to pull a few weeds for an overly generous amount of money. He didn't need the help, there were barely any weeds to be found and his yard was immaculate - he just knew my son was bored and looking for ways to earn some money during summer break. Those are just a couple of examples of the kind of person Delmas was. Until we meet again!

“ I first met Delmas about 5 years ago at a local audio store in Gig Harbor, WA. I had brought a record, Francis A. and Edward K., and we were listening to in and he was blown away from the sound and music! He was so interested I offered to give it to as I had like 4 copies of it at home. He was so gracious and offered me an album from his collection. That was a start of an infrequent but meaningful friendship.

Like others that new Delmas, he was always with a smile, kind, and loyal. I miss very much and long for the day he and I can once again discuss music and equipment and LIFE!

You are missed my friend!!!

“ Delmas was a generous and kind soul. He loved to BBQ and loved his music and kept an immaculate yard. We had some fun times with him. He made me some bbq ribs for me for Mothers day and more for my birthday. They were the best ribs I've ever had! Made my day ! We spent Easter with him and had a pool party too laughing and enjoying each others company. He shared and played all his best albums for us. He loved music a lot and had an awesome sound system. We had memorable and fun times with him.

Rest in peace our friend. Never forgotten.

“ I rented a Go Kart track for my birthday in late May 2021. Delmas was a beast on the track!!!

Jessica Carvalho - August 16 at 09:22 PM

“ Delmas was an amazingly kind person who was considerate of others. He loved music and loved to have others listen to his audio set-up "at optimal distance for constructive sound wave activity" (which is where he placed the couch). His home had a very warm feeling to it, just like him. He was funny, always inviting and so compassionate towards others. He was an amazing cook and loved to grill. It was heartbreaking to accept that he left us too soon, but I know he's flying free and full of joy. Rest in peace, dear friend.
