

Dexter Dawain Dismuke

January 21, 1987 - October 12, 2013

Celebration of life services for Mr. Dexter Dismuke, of Lithonia, GA will be held 1 PM Saturday Oct. 19, 2013, at Gregory B. Levett and Sons South DeKalb Chapel. Interment at Hillandale Memorial Gardens. Viewing and visitation Friday Oct. 18, 2013 from 12PM-8PM. Gregory B. Levett and Sons, 4347 Flat Shoals Pkwy., Decatur, GA. 30033. 404-241-5656.--A Time to be Born: Dexter Dawain Dismuke was born January 21, 1987 to Oliver Dismuke, Jr. (aka "Buddy Row") and Vernita Gore Dismuke (aka "Ole Girl") in Miami, FL. Dexter attributed his kind nature and heart of gold to the wisdom he received from various members of his family, especially the values instilled in him by his Grandparents Mr. And Mrs. Arthur Gore and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dismuke, Sr. Dexter was always a shining star amongst his family and friends gaining him the title of 305's finest. A Time to Grow:Dexter was educated and received his diploma from Job Core in Miami Gardens, FL. Dexter was a self made man and a skillful mechanic. He found ways to tinker and tanker on all automobile makes and models, eventually perfecting his craft and enhancing his hustle. Throughout the years he has worked in many automotive service capacities, most recently becoming an invaluable Service Member at Firestone Tires. He also worked at Lowes Home Improvement, as a Certified Fork Lift Operator. Many of Dexter's co-workers described him as a hard worker who loved to make others laugh. His drive and determination to succeed and be a provider for his family were known by all.A Time to Love:Dexter relocated to Riverdale, GA in 2004 to be with his love, Nicole Bryant (Nikki). On March 19, 2010 they became man and wife. On May 14, 2011, they welcomed a beautiful baby girl, Nyla Joan Dismuke, who instantly became the apple of his eye. Minutes after she was born, Dexter posted in front the Nursery Observation Room guarding her, even telling family that the nurse better leave his baby alone! Dexter fully and gladly accepted his role as Husband, Father, and Provider exclaiming to anyone that could hear that his family was his heart and soul. In addition to his wife, Dexter inherited another family in which he fit like the perfect piece of a puzzle. Dexter is survived by his loving wife Nicole Bryant Dismuke, an adoring daughter Nyla Joan Dismuke; his parents Oliver Jr. and Vernita Dismuke; two brothers Kenya Gore (Jacksonville, FL) and Derrick Dismuke (Miami, FL); his Maternal Grandparents Arthur and Martha Gore; Paternal Grandparents Oliver Sr. and Beatrice Dismuke; parents in-law Henry (Bud) and Joan (Mom-Dukes) Bryant (Canton, MI); sisters in- law Courtney Bryant and Brittany Bryant (Canton, MI) and E. Diane Hill (Lithonia, GA); a special Spiritual Mother Alice Faye Hill (Lithonia, GA); two special uncles Jonathan Clark and Nathaniel Clark (Jacksonville, FL); four nephews, one niece, five aunts, three uncles, three aunt –in-laws , twelve uncle-in-laws and a host of cousins, extended family, and friends from Albany, GA , Jacksonville and Miami, FL.

“ To the family of Dexter Dawain Dismuke: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.
-Edgar Albert Guest (1181-1959)

“ My sincere and warmest condolences to the family of Dexter. There are a few things in life that hurts worse than the death of a loved one. But, it is at these times that we turn to our Creator, our Heavenly Father, Jehovah for comfort. Take note of Job 14:14,15. This scripture tells us that God has a yearning to resurrect the dead and John 5:28, 29 tells us that all those in the memorial tomb will come out. “ To all family & friends of Dexter Dismuke;The Heart is the one which sails the sea of emotions & the brain just brings to the surface whatever your heart is going through;and right now,our hearts are hurting & our brains are restless.I had just seen Dex about 3-4 weeks ago @ his wife's grandparents house & I said Dex I was wondering who that man was with those nice shoes on...Dex smiled & said Thank you,thank you!And we laughed about it.

Lisa Jones from Albany,Ga. - October 13, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I offer heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Dismuke. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can gain comfort and courage as we keep in mind that God's Word assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus himself confirmed his role in this wonderful provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. God is faithful...
