

Donnaye Moore

October 24, 1965 - November 21, 2021

DUE TO COVID 19 RESTRICTIONS MEMORIAL SERVICES WILL BE LIMITED TO IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBERS ONLY

“I’ve come to believe that each of us has a personal calling that’s as unique as a fingerprint--and that the best way to success is to discover what you love and then find a way to offer it to others in the form of service, working hard, and allowing the energy of the universe to lead you”.

Oprah Winfrey

Unique, intellectual and visionary are just a few of the adjectives that aptly describe

Donnaye Mychelle Moore and this quote epitomizes her personal outlook on her personal calling.

Donnaye Mychelle Moore was a creative jewel born to Ethel Olivia Davis and the late Haywood White-McKahan on October 24, 1965 in Bronx, New York. She transitioned to her eternal home on Sunday, November 21, 2021 after a short illness.

Donnaye was reared in Mount Vernon, New York and was an active member of Grace Baptist Church where she was involved as a Youth Leader and Sunday School Teacher. As a resident of Atlanta she was a member of the Victory World Church.

She received her formal education in the public schools of Mount Vernon. She graduated with Honors from Mt. Vernon High School on June 24, 1983. While attending school there she received many awards for academic achievement, was inducted into the National Honor Society and received a Regents Scholarship from the State of New York.

She was accepted to Georgetown University as a candidate in the School of Foreign Service. While attending school at Georgetown she endured treatment for a previous diagnosis of cancer. After a brief hiatus from college, she returned to Howard University and received her degree in Education. She then continued on to John Hopkins University to receive a Masters degree in Higher Education.

Donnaye taught for a number of years at From the Heart Christian School in Temple Hills, Maryland and in the Baltimore Public School System. She and her family moved to Atlanta, GA in 2007 where she continued her teaching career at Redan High School, Arabia Mountain High School, and finally Brookwood High School where she passionately taught ninth grade English.

She was an avid reader and unique teacher in Shakespeare and Language Arts. She was a member and instructor of the Folger Institute where she was a teacher of teachers in the Methodology of Teaching Shakespeare to high school students.

Donnaye was an active collector of fine art, books, and paintings (not to exclude the collection of clothes, jewelry, purses, etc.). Traveling and going to museums and art shows were among her passions. She was a giving and caring individual who remembered the special days of family, friends, and colleagues and she always tried to do special things to make them smile.

We were blessed to share the essence of her love and joy as we give her honor for a life well lived. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Lloyd Moore, daughter Zion Llonae

Moore, mother Olivia Davis, brother Darryn (Karen) McKahan, nephew Jaylen Gaddy, maternal aunts; Linda Lynch and Lillie McKoy, sisters-in-love; Sharon and Cynthia Moore and brother-in-love John W. (Candice) Moore, III, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins, special friends Whitney (Jerry), Arielle and Justin Brown and a host of other friends that have supported her throughout life. If we could sit across the porch from God, we'd thank Him for lending us you.

“ Dear Mr Moore and Zion,
We wanted to share a note with you to let you know how much your wife and mother meant to her students. My son was a ninth grader in her English class a few years ago and she touched his spirit with her amazing teaching ability. We just found out about Ms Moore’s passing last night and we were all so saddened to hear about this terrible loss. We adored Ms Moore in part because of her fierce commitment to making learning joyful. My son told me that Ms Moore reawaked his passion for poetry during her class. He went on to write beautiful poems and with her review and blessings entered them into contests and won.
The way she supported her students and taught them both about English and also how to be good people touched us so deeply. We cherished the stories our son would tell us about how she handled her classroom and the students learning from her.
We only knew her as a teacher and adored her so much, we can’t begin to image how deep your loss is. Please know the time she spent away from you teaching the next generation of young people was time well invested.
We send our love and support.
Best regards, Allison

“ Donnaye, I am absolutely devastated to learn of your passing. Even though our time as colleagues ended in 2014, I always remembered you and our conversations with fondness. You were warm, witty, so smart, and always a listening, wise ear with great advice and encouragement. You will be missed. My deepest condolences to Zion and your husband.

“ I met Mrs. Moore my 9th grade year at Arabia Mountain. She was an amazing teacher & always had a smile on her face. Her lessons made you want to engage & take a deeper dive into what we were discussing. She always knew how to joke and laugh too. I'm sending her loved ones comfort & peace during this difficult time.

“ I am devastated to read of the passing of the eloquent, witty woman that I taught with at Old Mill High School. Sharply dressed and well accessorized, Donnaye was a class act who had a smile that could light up a room. Donnaye was the kind of teacher that inspired students to think for themselves and empowered them through literature. My heart breaks for her family.

“ Sister Mack as I knew her back at the From the Heart Christian School was an integral part of my growth and development as a teenager in her English class from 8th - 12th grade. Words cannot express how grateful I am to have been taught by her and learn from her. I have so many fun memories of being in her class testing the limits of her patience. She will absolutely be missed and her family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ The academic community will feel the loss of this tower of intelligence, logic compassion, and energy. The hope is that younger teachers she worked with will reflect Donnaye’s enthusiastic commitment to opening doors and windows for young people. We are all poorer without her.
