“Fred”, As he was known by his Family and Friends lived a Life of Service. Fred did his best to keep everyone in good spirits with his smart, witty jokes and comments that would leave the recipient thinking about it into the far distant future with recurring Laughter. Fred was the 1st born of 6 children. He was a spark of energy. That spark grew into a remarkable MEGABLAST of energy with zeal and zest for LIFE. He lived life with Love and Compassion. Fred had a tremendous consideration for others. He was always available to family, friends, and strangers alike. Whether it was through his smile, a hug, or literally, the shoes off his feet. Fred once said “Life is like concrete, not cement” he then explained that cement is just ONE ingredient that makes up concrete. Similarly, the legacy that he leaves behind teaches us that LIFE is comprised of a multitude of ingredients it becomes more sustainable and durable than ONE that stands alone. Fred always tried his best to help others. If Earth is, Indeed, a school for Souls..... Fred was a Master Teacher and will be greatly missed by those who were touched by his mere PRESENCE.

Fred leaves to cherish his memory three sons: Calvin Bailey (Tori), Cedrick Bailey and Chadwick Howard; 11 grandchildren; two brothers: Kenneth and Marcus Bailey of Lawrenceville, GA; two sister: Vivian Delores (Gregory) Hood of Lawrenceville, GA and Malinda (Larry) Pruitt of Canton, GA; two sisters- in-life: Shawn (Sanatra)
