On our Lord's day of May 01, 1938, Harold Taylor was born to the late Carlton & Ola Taylor. He transitioned from this life and was called home on Friday, October 15, 2021. Harold is the first male born of three brothers and was cherished by his five sisters as well. They all gave him love and support, throughout his life.

Harold was born in Buena Vista, Georgia and later relocated with his family to Reynoldstown. Attended, and graduated from David T. Howard High School in Atlanta. He always believed in maintaining employment and financial independence. A true blessing was bestowed upon him when he became employed by Kraft Foods Inc., and remained for twenty-five years. At which he accepted an early retirement offer from this company.

He never put himself first and always supported his family, in their pursuit of life's blessings and opportunities. His sacrifices, for his family, will always be appreciated and never forgotten.

Three of his favorite past-times were watching football, baseball, and the news to stay informed. Also, he always encouraged his children and grandchildren to seek the highest education, to understand the importance of patience, and to make smart choices.

Harold Taylor was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He and his wife are proud to be members of First Comfort Missionary Baptist Church; Founder: Rev. Dr. Noel Battle. Brother Taylor has lived his life, in the most respectable, caring and kind way, imaginable. There was never a task that he would not tackle, and make all attempts to resolve.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Carlton & Ola Taylor, a daughter, Sonja L. Nichols; his sisters, Dorothy Perkins, Corine Williams, Viola Taylor Romeo, and his brother, Richard Taylor.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Barbara Ann Taylor; children: Charmita L. Langley, Lalisa D. Taylor, and Harold Taylor II; seven grandchildren: Jasmine D. Kemp, Dyamond S. Humphrey, Joyne E. Nichols, Jada N. Nichols, Jacob B. Nichols, Jamaya O. (Brianna) Smith and William T. Gibbons IV; three great-grandchildren: Jalia Lewis, Tyjai Williams, and Jaelyn Rachel Smith; two sisters: Elaine Bryant and Katrina (Norman) Turner; one brother: Robert H. Taylor, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ This was a great man! I met Mr. Harold 46 years ago when his daughter Sonja (May she continue to rest in Paradise) and I met in the 1st grade at Our Lady of Lourdes, and became best friends. I spent many weekends at their house. He was like a second dad to me. My mom Thelma (May she continue to rest in Paradise) and Mrs. Barbara became the best of friends as well. My stepdad Winston “Slick”(May he continue to rest in Paradise) and Mr. Harold created a good friendship too. I remember the card parties on the weekends. Sonja and I would be trying to sneak downstairs and be noisy and Mr. Harold would run us back upstairs and we’d go laughing, he said he was gonna spank us, but he never did. Numerous birthday parties and cookouts, memories I will never forget. Rest in Paradise Mr. Harold, you will be missed. I thank God that I met you. Love you, Chantique “ Nene”.
