

Mr. James L. Beverly

April 18, 2013

Home Going Services for Mr. James Lee Beverly will be held at 3:00pm on Sunday April 21, 2013 at Gregory B. Levett and Sons Funeral Home 351 N. Clarendon Ave, Scottdale Georgia 30079. Interment Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens 5755 Mallory Road College Park, GA 30349.

Let's travel back in time when Alice Jordan and James Beverly Sr. met. On the 23rd day of January 1932, their only son James Lee Beverly was born in Greensboro, Alabama. James was raised by his mother and stepfather (Harvey).

James accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was baptized in Alabama waters. He spent seven years in the United States Army, traveled many countries and picked up many languages (mostly German). After many marriages, he met and married Mary, the love of his life. From this union, James raised three sons; James "Terry", Bruce and Darryl. James was a road driver by trade who retired from Yellow Freight after 25 years of dedicated service. After retirement, James moved to Monticello, Georgia to enjoy life and his other loves. His other loves were Fishing; the Georgia Association of Elks #54 Gate City Elks Lodge, where he served as an Exalted Ruler; and his membership of The American Legion-Jasper, County, Inc. GA Post #110. James loved women, whiskey and fishing and he loved people of all kind..

James was preceded in death by his parents, Alice Jordan and James Beverly Sr.; his step father, Harvey Jordan; and his grandson, James Terry Taylor III.

James L. Beverly leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved wife of 32 years, Mary Alice Beverly; three children, James "Terry" (Denise), Bruce (Shauna) and Darryl (Cynthia); nine grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a countless number of other family, friends, and other loved ones.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the family of James L. Beverly:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
