“ Growing up without a father as a young boy was not rough but God saw fit when I was eighteen to bring you into my life, well as my siblings. I will say this, God doesn't make mistakes. We had our moments, but we got through the rough patches when I accepted my mother needed a companion. You taught me how to become a man by your hard work and dedication to my mother who became your wife. A man born of a woman is but for a few days. You will be remembered by many things, but the one thing that will stick out to me is when you said, "I will have to get some *bought sense." Boy did I learn. If you want to be boss, pay the cost :) Thank God, you were there. Pastor D. J. Favors OSOG Apostolic Outreach Ministries Inc.
