

Karen Taylor

September 13, 1965 - September 16, 2021

Karen C. Taylor of Conyers, Georgia was born Karen Denise Powell on September 13, 1965 in Richmond, Virginia to James Moore and Clayte Powell. She was James' oldest and Clayte's only child. She was raised in Danville, VA and attended Danville City Public Schools. She also spent time in Richmond and Washington, D.C. as a child. Eventually, she would leave Danville and head to Fayetteville, North Carolina, where she met and married Donald Campbell Jr. She would go on to move to Texas, Georgia, Maryland, and Florida, before eventually making her way to metro Atlanta in 2013, where she met and married Leroy Taylor, whom she later divorced in 2017.

Karen accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and most recently was a member of RhemaNation Church in Stonecrest, Georgia.

From an early age, Karen never met a stranger. She would strike up conversations with people in any place and passersby would presume she had known them for years. Karen is remembered by most as being helpful, kind, and generally a ray of sunshine to all she encountered. In addition to bringing light to the lives of others, Karen most enjoyed retail therapy. She was known to spend hours in stores, especially clothing, shoe, and home goods stores. Decorating her home, The Queendom, spending time with her family, and playing with her dog-daughter, Daisy, were some of her most treasured pastimes.

Karen graduated from the University of Phoenix with her Bachelor of Science Degree in Business with a Certificate in Integrated Supply Chain Operations and Management in 2020. Karen's career in inventory management spanned over two decades across multiple industries, working for companies such as McLane, The Johns Hopkins Hospital, Tampa General Hospital, and Coca-Cola. She most recently served as an Install Coordinator for Stanley Security in Stone Mountain, GA.

Karen leaves to cherish and miss her dearly, her father and mother, James Moore and Clayte P. Morgan; three children, Danielle Powell, Ashley Powell, and Donald Campbell III; six grandchildren, Dontavian, Rashad, Trevon, Aiden, Arian, and Tamia; sister and brother,

Joylette Gunn and Rontae Perkins; and a host of other family members and friends who are like family. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Rosetta P. Wimbush; uncle, Burrell Wimbush; sister, Lashana Keen; and beloved dog-son, Mr. Bailey

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends. I met you at Stanley Security and in that short period of time we clicked. You called us birthday twins (9/13). Your smile could light up an entire room and your personality was magnetic! You loved to shop and be Great. You met no strangers at all. A true lover of people caring and always willing to help. The lunches, the laughs, wow, they were all great. You are and will be missed KT. Continued prayers to the family.

Rest In Power My Birthday Twin

“ Karen, we meet at work 9 years ago! We clicked instantly because we both had an addiction...Shopping! We loved it! We had so much in common and our friendship is everlasting! You brighten up everything with that smile! You have a heart of gold and I love you! I will miss you, our midnight talks, concerts. Rest well my sister.

“ Looking over us from your place in heaven, is where your light will reach all of us at once. Your energy lit the world around you where ever you were. Missing your 30 minute on my phone had been hard, but your voice is for every saved.

Your last message to me was on time like only a Goddess can do. You are and will always! Be Amazing! Laugh, dance, sing with the Gods now you're forever loved like no other.

Your kids are built amazing just like you .

I would say rest now but you don't know how to stop. We will see one another again but not yet my heavenly friend.

I Love You Karen .

“ You are such an amazing and wonderful woman, Karen! You always had a way to make me smile when I saw you. You will truly be missed, by so many. Please look over all of us that loved you from Heaven, because you are an Angel now and we all need you in this time and age today. Thank you for the friendship and being the wonderful person you were to me. Prayers and so much respect for your family at this time. May everyone come together and have peace and closure.

Sincerely,
Troy & the gang @ TNT Automotive
