

Luther James Lesure

July 3, 1937 - February 21, 2021

Luther James Lesure was born on July 3, 1937, in Holly Springs, MS to his late parents, Ernest Estelle and Gladys Lesure. He moved to Jackson, TN at an early age and was co-parented by his loving aunt Clara Hill-Briton and his uncle Fred Briton.

After graduating from Merry High School, he joined the United States Navy and served for six years, with an honorable discharge. Afterward, Chicago, IL would become the site of the encounter of his beloved wife of 60 years, Ruthie Potts of Detroit, Michigan — whom he affectionately called “Sweetie”. He would extend this love and care to his two later-born sons and four grandchildren.

James accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior in the early 1970’s, leading him to serve in his role as a deacon at Greater Grace Temple of the Apostolic Faith Church in Detroit, MI.

James joined the Detroit Police Department in 1965. He retired after 25 years.

Later, he and his wife moved to Atlanta, where he worked at the Dekalb County Sheriff’s Department and worshipped at Bethesda Temple and New Mercies Christian Church where he also served as a deacon. For the last ten years, he has worshipped and served as a deacon at Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of his pastor Bishop William L. Sheals. Up until his final days, he served as Coordinator of the Radical Love Marriage Ministry. He and his wife have been blessed to touch the lives and partnerships of over a thousand couples.

His impact, wisdom, and love will be experienced by the world forever.

James is survived by his loving wife Ruth, two sons Jacques (Kimberly) and Darryl (Candice), late daughter-in-love Abby, four grandchildren (Ceora, Jacques, Vanessa, Evan), and his siblings Earnest Estelle Jr. (deceased) (Rosetta), LaRue, Linda (Robert R.), Edward (Eldrena), Douglas (Beulah), Charles (Colleen), Michael, and Richard, sister-in-law Earnestine Williams (Delvin), previously married to Robert Harrington (deceased) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Celebration of Life for Mr. Luther James Lesure will be held Saturday, February 27, 2021 at 9am in our Gwinnett Chapel. Burial at Georgia National Cemetery. Visitation will be held Friday, February 26, 2021 from 3pm-7pm at Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, 914 Scenic Hwy., Lawrenceville, GA., 30045.

“ To the entire Lesure Family and especially Mrs. Lesure, I hope you know how much you've touched my life. Serving you at the OK Cafe was one of my true joys. When you sat at my table my day INSTANTLY became better. Your smile was infectious and your love of life just exuded from EVERYWHERE!! You'll truly be missed by all, but we'll take care of your Sweetie.
RIP sweet man.

“ Dearest Ruth,

You must know my heart beats for you in the loss of "Sweetie", your beloved husband of over 60 years. During our thirty years of friendship, it was a pleasure to be in you and James' presence, because you both always exuded joy with an irresistible smile. Unfortunately, James you never found me the husband you promised, but you tried! So James, rest in Heavenly peace, perhaps think about a "Marriage Ministry."

My deepest sympathy to you, Ruth, Jacques, Darryl, grandchildren and daughters-in-love. Praying that God will quickly send his Comforter to abide with you and fill your hearts with everlasting sweet memories of James.

With love and sympathy,

Betty Palmer

“ Dad Lesure, you're one of God's great giants in the realm, your light so shine that who came near to you were able to see the unconditional Love of God in you. I am truly better person after crossing your path.
I've learned how love without unrealistic expectations. I'll forever cherish the moments we share together talking you were like the father I never had, I am left with the last time me spoke on New Years Day January 2020 before I departed from Georgia not knowing it would be our last time together, I know for sure that you're smiling with the Lord. My prayers for mom Lesure is that the piece of God keep her cover until you two meet again.

“ A life that has made a difference in so many other lives will be well remembered.

A soul that has lifted up other souls and encouraged the climb will be well honored.

A person who turned the spirit of God’s love into living action will be well revered.

This is who “DADDY LESURE” was. You and he have BLESSED so many and WE LOVE YOU. Praying that God’s love will comfort you and your family, reminding you again and again and again that you are not alone “ Words can't express my Gratitude for the role the Dad James served in the lives of my wife and I. Right now, there's a great void with him not being here. We credit him along with Mother Ruth with saving our marriage and gaining another Son and Daughter for life. I reflect on all of the conversations and how he imparted his wisdom which helped me become a better man and husband. His smile could move mountains!!! The times that I spent with him just talking one on one are forever engraved in my heart!!! I will really missed him!! To Mom Ruth and the entire Lesure Family, We send our sincere condolences and we pray for GOD's continued comfort during the time. We love you and just a call away.
