“ I did not know Marcia well. I met her on a few occasions when she was younger and I visited Uncle Eugene when he lived with them. But, to my cousin Gay, I am so sorry you have to say goodbye to your beloved daughter. Please remember that she she will always be in your memories and your stories. To the entire family, I'm praying for your comfort as you journey through this loss. Please accept heartfelt sympathy from Robertha and family.

“ I remember when Marcy and Michelle were migrating to the USA, we spent all night over at my uncle's, her grandfather, chatting and laughing. My uncle Eugene was going to take them to the USA, so they left very early the next morning for the airport. When everyone thought they they all were on a flight to America, we saw the bus that took them to the airport stopped in front of the house and My Uncle Eugene, along with Michelle and Marcy disembarked . When we enquired why they were back, my uncle said he forgot the "atachi" case with all the passports and other documents...what a laugh that was... They had to reschedule their flight.

Rest In Peace my dear cousin Marcy.
Will always remember "duff-duff"
