

Michael McClean

November 4, 1952 - August 29, 2021

Pastor Michael McClean was born on November 4, 1952, at home in Sackville St, Port of Spain, Trinidad, to Geraldine (Pearly) McClean and was the fourth child of 12 siblings. He passed from this life into eternal life on Sunday, August 29, 2021, at his son's home in Loganville, Georgia, United States.

Michael obtained his early education at Richmond St. Boys Anglican School. At the tender age of thirteen (13), he decided to join the workforce to help his loving mother provide for the family. He developed a love for the sea and worked at Shell Oil Co., now known as National Petroleum Marketing Co. Ltd. He worked on their vessels for 30 years.

In the 1970s, after attending a crusade with his late mother and witnessing the miraculous healing of a family friend, he started his relationship with God, which grew closer over the years, and he became an active church member. During this time, he became a father and chose to be a devoted dad to his children and all the other honorary children and family members. He was a strict disciplinarian but always found the time to take his kids to the savannah, beach and expose them to a life of opportunities he did not have.

In the early 1980's he moved his family from Laventille to Arima, where he purchased his first home and provided a safe, loving, and welcoming haven to his six children. He taught his children life-long values of treating people the way you want to be treated, never judging, always be willing to help, and more.

After retiring from his job in 2009, he decided to go into full-time ministry and focus his life's passion and work on God. He started Times of Refreshing Ministries, which was founded on the concepts of love and compassion. For the last 12 years, he was dedicated to doing God's work and focusing on what he was put on this Earth to do, fulfill God's purpose. He was a dedicated servant of the Lord.

Michael McClean is survived by his wife, Pamela McClean, and his children: Alicia Wharwood, Jason McClean, Joel McClean, Kezia McClean, Omri McClean, Cordell

McClean, and the mother of his children. He also leaves behind his stepchildren Nicole Metoyer, Trumanne Guerin, Sean Ayen, alongside twenty-one (21) grandchildren, ten (10) siblings, and a host of nephews, nieces, family, church families, and friend

“ We will always remember Pastor Michael McClean as one who loved God and one that was very excited and passionate for the things that concerned Christ. He was kind to us while we fellowshiped at his church (and after) and we appreciate all he did for the Kingdom or God, his family and for those in his congregation. I pray God touch his wife, children, grandchildren, relatives and friends during this time mourning. May he rest in peace.

“ Bishop Dr. Michael McClean shall always be remembered fondly in my mind, heart, soul and spirit as a visionary extraordinaire.

So much so, that while this amazing Papa to many a biological and spiritual child has accomplished great things in his life, not the least of which being: a successful seaman's career from which he retired and the birth of a multi-faceted ministry where he continued to sail into the unnavigated waters of spirituality in Hamashiach (Christ).

As a your former Associate Junior Minister/Youth Ministry Leader/Worship Leader/Vocal Trainer/Choir Director/Armour Bearer, nephew, adopted son and resident of your home, now that the day of your memorial has arrived everything seems so extremely surreal.

Suffice it to say, I have had a front row seat in times of victory and vulnerability, in times of triumph and in times of tragedy, in times laughter and lament and one thing that was constant in all of those moments was the heart of a man who desired passionately pursued the greatest good and fought valiantly for what he believed in. You beyond all else were a fighter! And thanks be to Yahuah a loving tender hearted fighter on the side of righteousness.

And yes, We too had our battles philosophical and otherwise, but the one constant that remained was that of the mutual love that we shared for each other and ministry.

The true visionary extraordinaire that you are you left to us a plethora of dreams and visions yet to be accomplished.

In a recent message of your loving virtuous wife, co-Pastor and First Lady Pamela McClean, I read where the Woman of God committed herself to fulfilling those objectives. A commitment that certain pleases you, for every man wants to know that his life's work and mission survives him and that those he loved, especially his wife and children natural and adopted, will carry it on in his absence.

One of these visions you had Papa is that of the birth of a Ministry in Laventille, which you saw in a dream.

Well, it would certainly please you to know that between your sister, Prayer Warrior Par Excellence Queen Nedra McClean and her daughter, your niece Prophetess Reva McClean the seeds of what promises to be a rather dynamic ministry has already not only been planted, but has began to express abundant life though, yet a seedling!

To wit, it is incumbent upon me to do all that I can to support and facilitate its growth and development and to seek where possible to forge positive and fruitful alliances between it and that of Times of Refreshing Ministries Head Quarters and other ministries birthed within the family.

Ours is indeed a family of Royal Priests with no less than seven identified ministers at every level of the Five-Fold Ministry and while one of our best and brightest lights in you now shines on the other side of glory, we will continue to do the good work, we will continue to run the good race and we shall indeed keep the faith.

On behalf of my wife wife Nzingha Lisi Little Kamau and my family we collectively pray that you will rest in peace and rise in power Bishop Dr. Michael "Papa" McClean!

We love you dearly!

“ I count myself privileged to have met such a gem in the Kingdom Of God, truly a man after God's own heart. Papa you always went above and beyond for my daughter and I. You taught us sooo much under your leadership, and I remember you often said to me, " no one is coming here to sit and get fat,they have to do what God called them to do." And there it began..
You will forever be missed.. R.I.P Papa Bishop and much love to you Mother Dearest.

“ I knew him from working N P with my husband. My husband speaks of how he was always reading the Bible . He was always respectful. The best gift anyone can have is to die in Christ. I pray that those he left behind will also like him live for Christ.

“ Sincere condolences to the widow Pastor Pamela McClean and other members of the family.

Death will always bring different emotions. Pastor McClean will be missed in our community. He was an inspiration to many. I pray that members of this family are able to adjust. This is a challenging but necessary process. Blessings.
