“ I am still in utter disbelief that Naj is gone. He was such a bright light at Mountain View High school and it was my pleasure to teach him for 2 years. Naj will be missed. I send condolences to the family. Mrs. Booker

“ Grieving this significant loss with my friends Linda, Dameon and family. Naj, one of my sons, from church, I am still in disbelief.

Our family will miss you dearly, your hugs, smile, infectious personality, profound words of wisdom, you never being afraid to pray, say an uplifting word to EVERYONE you came in contact with. Your strength, your energy, your laughter, your passion for life. Your skits, your lyrics, your videos. It's hard to believe that you are no longer with us. Although you are not here in flesh...you are definitely with us in spirit. There are no words to describe the numbness and emptiness we feel. Just grateful to have experienced your love and witness how you blessed others throughout your time on earth. We miss you so much.

Love you my son, until we meet again!

“ We met online, and he showed me into the light of believing in more, and to appreciate life. He was an amazing person. And he always had something nice to say. We became good friends and I will miss him forever. May god keep his soul in a high tier. And my prayers go out to his family, and his friends. Thought I never met him in real life the interactions that I had with him will never be forgotten. He loved everyone just as much as he loved himself.

“ There's a saying that goes” people may forget what you say but they will never forget how you made them feel” I had the pleasure of meeting Naj at a talent show he was in. He walked over to my daughter and told her she did a good job. It warmed my heart bc she was only 8 at the time and she beamed when he said it. But it spoke to his character and it was refreshing to know my son had friends like Naj in high school. My heart and prayers go out to his family and friends. May they be comforted in knowing what a ray of light he was in this world.

“ This young man came into my life a few months ago... He had been in my daughter's life since high school. they have been best of friends to the point that he visited my home frequently. Naj was the humblest and most respected teen that I came across. He never visited without a hugging and chatting with me. Thank you for sharing your smile and love with us. You will always be remembered. I can't believe you are gone but heaven gained an angel. Sleep in peace Naj...

“ I don't want to believe this! Lord, how could you take this light from us? If you never have met this young man and his brother, you have missed a blessing. They were two of the most polite, gentle, respectful boys in our church! They made my heart swell with the miracle of God's creation whenever I saw them interact with the members of our church. It is very seldom you see children with such grace and kindness in everything they did. This boy will be mourned by our church and he will never be forgotten. Pray for his dear mother, brother and sister. May the Lord hold you in his hand until we meet again
