“ Dear Kight family, Please accept my deepest condolences.

I worked with David for about 15 years. The picture here is exactly how he will be etched in my memory and will be missed immensely.

I had so many interactions with David over the years, especially with Theresa Kim (TK) being in Alpharetta, I can recall lots of raucous luncheons and fun times with David and TK. He had even been to my house on one occasion, when we had lunch near my house and I had to stop by to pick something. He was always curious and interested in my culture. Always asking me questions on how things are done in my culture and he was enamored by Indian culture of women doing all the chores and tending to the family (which is always a mythical paradox). We had a few rows over creating some table or other and of course not to mention the disagreement over triggers :-). But he was such a great person to work with and always pleasant. He was one of the first ones to welcome me and make me feel at home in the office, when I first moved to Atlanta.

David always had fond endearments about his daughter and very proud of his son.

Having been with VZW for so long, I have made a lot of lasting friendships and these friends are truly my extended family.

It is still so surreal...
