“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future. Visit us at www.jw.org for more spiritual comfort.

“ Dear Adams Family, In his word the Bible, our Creator promised us something wonderful, that there is indeed hope for seeing loved ones again: John 5:28,29 tells us:...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out... All those who demonstrate love and obedience to God have a prospect to enjoy a life together on a beautiful, peaceful earth restored by Him: Psalms 37:10, 11: ...the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. Those who are gone have already paid the penalty for sin, which is death. (Romans 6:23). What wonderful hope you have to see Willie again.

“ I owe a great deal to mr. Willie Adams...he and Mrs. Adams have been dear friends and mentors of mine for years. Had it not been for mentors such as Mr.Adams or John Shaft as I would call him, I would not have the business that I have today. He and Mr. Leroy Sims of Palmetto, Florida were like unto the apostles in the Bible as to their contribution to my business...Mr. Sims planted the seed and Mr. Willie Adams watered...and boy did he water, as he helped me to create a more effective cosmetic set for the African-American funeral home industry. He did not take any foolishness, and he was very humble about his EXCEPTIONAL talent with his hands...I often said that no one could do restoration as well as Mr. Willie Adams, except for God himself.Blessings to the family in Jesus' name,Cynthia A. “ My heart is heavy to hear of the passing of Sgt. Willie Adams. He made a great impression on my life when I first started training under him at the Sellers Brothers Funeral Home. He was a gentleman in every sense. When he saw a student that was interested and wanted to learn, he invested his time and expertise with them. I'm most grateful for him seeing the potential in me. He was a no nonsense person. I can remember every time he showed me a technique in embalming he would either undo it or have me show him what he done. I would give him a look as if to say Why you undo it? (smile) He wouldn't say a word and look at me as if to say Don't you dare question me.He was a man who took pride in his work and would dare challenge anyone or any technique. I feel priviledged to have been one of his students. I will forever have fond memories of him.Rest in Peace Sgt. Adams - I love you!Doreen Williams-JamesAlpha Memorial Chapel Funeral HomeSt. George, Bermuda

“ The day I learned of Sarg's passing was one of the blackest days of my life. It felt like someone had put a hole in my heart. I have such wonderful memories of him from my days at Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service in Decatur. Adams was a wonderful person. He was my mentor during my clinical practice at Gupton-Jones. We spent hours together in the basement of Sellers Brothers Funeral Home, and any time I needed him at my own establishment, he came to my rescue...Sarg was a wonderful teacher, and practitioner. I have tremendous respect for him, and his skill as an embalmer. He was always immaculate, well -dressed and just a wonderful person to be around. I will NEVER forget him. The family has my deepest deepest sympathy. We have lost a wonderful friend. Charlotte A. Clark-Frieson, Co-Owner/Director Clark Memorial Funeral Service Roanoke, Alabama
