Tribute Wall

“Mr Harding, Abraham, Abbey, Abes, Abe, Abey- baby. All the names that our friends have called him in the last 32 years that we've been friends. A most genuine and unselfish soul. I met Abbey on my first day of work at Amalgamated Bank, and on hearing my Trini accent, he immediately struck up a conversation with me. We talked about calypso music, his association with Clico Life Insurance company among other things and I would soon be called little bits (because of my height) and Tiney Winey after a popular Trini calypso. I was a young mom with a 3 month old son, and Abbey and I further bonded with conversations about expecting his 1st born Aziza. He was so excited to be a dad! He later perfected those skills as he joyfully stepped up to assist with every aspect of the kids' lives

He was a motivator to all his colleagues: on the way to earning his bachelor's degree, he encouraged everyone to return to school and imparted every piece of information he knew about securing financial aid etc. He was exuberant when relating any info that could uplift you. He didn't have a malicious bone in his body, preferring to lift you up rather than keep you down.

Abbey became friends with my then husband and met my parents, sister and cousins. He would make it his business to ask for each one by name in later years when we moved away from each other. He genuinely wanted to know about how everyone was faring. Abbey was one of those people who was really interested when he asked how you were doing. He would ask a second time when I brushed off the question, saying, "Whartsey, how you really doing girl"?

Two years ago my father passed away leaving my mom severely broken after 64 years of marriage. Abbey made it his duty to check on Mom's every week: he regularly sent her inspirational material such as gospel songs or sermons. He called and chatted with her to encourage her in the fight. He was there for us again 2 months ago when Mom passed suddenly. His selfless nature has left an indelible mark on my entire family and they extend condolences to Abbey's family and all who loved him.

You were an amazing friend and brother to me Abraham Martin Luther Harding and I was fortunate to have crossed your path. May the Lord continue to shower his blessings upon you in the next life as you rest in eternal peace.

*With love always

“ Sincerest condolences to the Harding family. I've known Abbey through my sister Charmaine for just over 30 years. He was such a wonderful person, kind, caring and sincere. He was like family to us. He called my Mom at least once a week- he was like a son to her. Abbey will be sorely missed. Rest In Peace Abbey...I know you giving my parents real jokes in heaven.

“ Abraham was perhaps the most decent and selfless person I've met. He always wanted to see others do their best and he deliberately encouraged everyone in their pursuits as though it was him pursuing those goals. He was also avid about health and wellness and again Abby never allowed an opportunity to pass without sharing how we could enjoy better wellness.

This guy was also proud about his family, school and about his country. He was extremely well informed on a variety of subjects but always sought the opinion of others. I can't recall ever hearing Abby speaking negatively about anyone. That was simply not part of his DNA.

His legacy will live on forever. I am just blessed to have been his friend and I honour him as an incredible human spirit who always looked out for others.

RIP my friend!

I am shocked at the passing of my friend Abby. He was a friendly person always smiling. Always interested in the pursuits of others and their success. He will be missed not only by me but by those whose lives he touched. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

R.I.P. Abbey it was good to know you for so many years. I remembered him working at Cave Shepherd for many years and when you returned to Barbados some years ago it was good to see you back in Pine Plantation Road after so many years. You told me about your boys and the last time we spoke you were tidying up around your home before you left to return to the U.S. to visit your kids. The neighborhood won't be the same without you.
