“ To the family of Mr. Abram J. Wooten:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ *My Dearest Friend, Beverly & Family:
“Time is not measured by the years that you live
But by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give-
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest, leaving nothing undone
That would brighten the life or lighten the load
Of some weary traveler lost on Life's Road-So what does it matter how long we may live If as long as we live we unselfishly give.”*

“ *To the Wooten Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. For more scriptural encouragement please go to: www.jw.org/en/publications/books/?contentLanguageFilter=en&pubFilter=we&sortBy=1:

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer.
~James 4:8.
