“ To the family of Ada Mae Prince:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen and sustain you all. As you look ahead, keep in mind that God's loving resurrection provision assures us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." ~James 4:8.

“ Ms. Ada was a very caring and loving women. I remember when I turned sixteen that she took it upon herself to give me a sweet sixteen "surprise" birthday party. I will cherish that memory for the rest of my life, she made me feel so special. My deepest sympathy goes out to the family, friends and loved ones!

Yours Truly,

Janice (Traylor) Simpson
