“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Adeola Wulah. May you find comfort in the promise from the Almighty God found at Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself has spoken it."

“ I read with sadness of the loss of Adeola. My heart goes out to you over your loss. Cherish your loving memories and believe that God loves you and has not left you. Your heavenly Father can bind up your broken heart and comfort your mourning. By means of His Son Christ Jesus He has promised a time when there will be no more pain and sorrow. "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." - John 11:24,25; Revelation 21:3, 4; Matthew 5:5. Please take to heart His words of comfort and may His loving arms support and strengthen you. Heartfelt prayers are with you.

“ My deepest, most sincere condolences to the friends and family of Ms. Wulah. Death is definitely the greatest enemy of all. Please find comfort in the scriptures with the hope that you will get through this painful period of grief. 1 Peter 5:7 "Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you'.

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and I hope the following suggestions help the family members and those who loved Ms. Adeola Wulah to lessen their grief. Talk about your feelings to “a true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically. If you have feelings of guilt thinking that some neglect on your part contributed to your loved one’s death, realize though, that no matter how much we love another person, we cannot prevent “time and unforeseen occurrence from befalling those we love. (Ecclesiastes 9:11) More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family at this difficult time. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah God of (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am so sorry for your great loss. May the God who is 'comforting those mourning, and binding the brokenhearted' in your time of distress, may these words soothe not only your hearts, but your minds, your emotions, and both your physical and spiritual health for “God is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit”
(Ps. 34:18).

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Ms. Adeola Wulah. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Wulah:
May "the God of all comfort" continue to sustain you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God made this loving provision when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). He also encourages us..."Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1). God always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5).

To the Family and Friends of Ms Wulah: I would like to offer my sincere condolence to you and your family. "Your dead will live. My corpse will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." (Isaiah 26:19)
