“ To the family of Adeyemi Clark: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ SSG Clark, you will truly be missed. You was an outstanding Non-Commissioned Officer and well deserving of the next rank to come. I have worked with you on many occasions and they were all memorable. You were one of the first NCO's I met in the 461st HRC and I was proud to have you serve as one of my Platoon Sergeants. You have ran a great race, and fought a good fight! It is now time for you to rest, my good and faithful servant. You will never be forgotten! To the family, Stay strong!1LT C.M. Butler

“ My first person I met at the 461st unit was SSG Clark. He was always a cheerful person, never raised his voice, and was a cool person. It is unbelievable that a man of his stature left us so quickly. I wish he was still here to this day. 2LT Campbell, INFormer CDT at 461st HRC

“ family and friends, I knew SSG Clark very well from the unit, he was always doing the SLV's and DD93, he took care of soldiers. I can even remember him working at Bank Of America. I can see his face at drill doing his job and remember his voice.He achieved so much in his lifetime, I aspire to be like SSG Clark. I am happy he knew the lord and had strong faith, I know he is in better place. He also was a true friend. Rest in Peace you will be missed.Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.SPC Ashley Williams

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the family and friends of one of the greatest Soldiers I ever worked with. I enjoyed his strength, his character and intense demeanor. I was his squad leader in Kuwait and Iraq as we deployed together in 2003; there was nothing he couldn't do under my direction. In the same token, he taught me to free and live even in the sight of the desert. I am thankful for being introduced to him. May the Lord Our God send mercy and grace upon him, as he is laid to rest”

“ To the family and friends, Sometimes it's hard to find the words to say to comfort those who have loss a love one in death, But God word the Bible provide soothing comfort for us all. Soon God Kingdom (Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind, under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick (Isaiah 33:24), no death, nor tears (Revelation 21:3,4). We will be able to live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace (Psalms 37:11). “ AJ, you touched my life in a special way. For every tear that is shed for you, an empty feeling of love we feel. For an angel taken from us, doesn't seem to be real. “ As the current Commander of the 461st Human Resource Company and a person who has gotten to know SSG Clark for over 5 years, I can truly say SSG Clark will definitely be missed. He was an amazing NCO, who cared about the Soldiers, and did whatever needed to be done to ensure things were taken care of. His caring heart and humble spirit were a true asset to the Soldiers, myself, the unit, and the U.S. Army. I pray continual strength for the family and if there is ever a need please don't hesitate to ask. We are truly losing a dear Soldier and a loving man, but we shall see him again on the other side.
