“ Ms. Watts and I have been together many times. We travel together a lot going to different places. The last time she spoke with me she told me that she was going to Jamaica to visit. I still do not want to believe she passed away. Whenever I visit her, she is always feeding me. I will surely miss her. My most fund memory is taking her to work and sitting outside waiting for her to get done, and taking her back home. I still cannot believe she is gone. Rest In Peace. I am so sorry I was not there to say goodnight. Joanie Joy Morgan, Facebook and twitter.

I take her around when she comes to Jamaica...it was about 2 to 3 weeks before her unexpected death that she was in Jamaica. She was such a generous person. Really miss her
