My dear sister, there is so much that I'd like to say, for the short time we shared. I'll start by saying that it has been a supreme blessing to have been able to be in the presence of a wonderful, strong, and ambitious young lady. Although GOD gave us a short time together, he birthed in me, the spirit of sisterhood, knowing I was an only child, and never had anyone in that place. I feel like I've known you for a lifetime, and I know we'll meet again! As the word declares in 2 Timothy 4:7, you have fought the good fight, you have finished your race, and you have kept the faith. Just know, I will continue the assignment that GOD has called me to, which is to SURROUND YOUR FAMILY WITH MY LOVE. I LOVE YOU SISTER!
