

Agatha Fraser

September 27, 1932 - November 22, 2024

Agatha Fraser, 92, of Lithonia, Georgia, passed away peacefully on November 22, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Agatha was born on September 21, 1932, in Georgetown, Guyana to Catherine and Damon Morrison.

Agatha married Berkley Fraser, and together they raised five beautiful children: Colin, Compton, Dennis, Andrea, and Carolyn. In Georgetown, she grew to be one of the city's most talented seamstresses, renowned for her impeccable sense of style and skill. Agatha had an extraordinary ability to look at someone, know their size, and create stunning garments that became the epitome of fashion in Georgetown.

In 1970, Agatha left Georgetown and journeyed to New York in search of a better life for her children. She brought her passion for fashion with her and worked tirelessly as a domestic worker, demonstrating the values of hard work and sacrifice that paved the way for her family's success. Her dedication to family and education extended to many others as her home served as a welcoming haven for relatives and friends arriving in the U.S. She opened her home, provided a place to stay, and ensured everyone was well cared for.

“ I was blessed to have a wonderful relationship with my Aunt Agatha. She was someone I truly admired. She was a humble yet elegant woman — kind, generous, resourceful, and industrious. She had an extraordinary ability to make everyone feel special and valued, and it's her warmth and generosity that left a lasting impact on everyone who knew her.

Aunt Agatha lived a long and meaningful life. There are many life lessons that I've learned from her over the years. She leaves behind a powerful legacy, one that we are all blessed to carry forward. Her life was a testament to love, resilience, and the importance of family. Let us celebrate her life, cherish the memories she created, and strive to live as she did — with kindness, generosity, and unwavering faith. May her example continue to inspire and guide us as we honor her legacy in the days to come.

Rest in peace, Aunt Agatha! Thank you for showing us what it means to live a life well lived. You will be in our hearts forever!
