“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. At times like this words are never enough to heal the pain. I believe this is because GOD created us with a desire to always be with our loved ones. I hope the words at Revelation 21:4 can bring you comfort ... “ And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry or pain be anymore.” If you would like to read more bible passages please visit www.jw.org you will be able to view them in several different languages or listen to audio recordings at a time convenient for you. “ I offer sincere sympathy and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mr. Grier. God's Word promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up ones who had fallen asleep in death, giving us evidence of what he will do on a global scale soon! We can put faith in these promises because God is faithful! (Joshua 23:14, Isaiah 55:11)

“ To the Grier Family,

I pray that God will lift you up during this time. I firmly believe that even though Alan has left his earthly body, his spirit comes to visit you from time to time. Even though your heart is heavy, and people offer words of comfort, please remember that God has Alan and will continue to use him and that you will see him again. We are keeping you in our prayers and we will miss Alan. God bless.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Mr. Alan Grier. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. The Almighty God has promised a time when we will be able to spend time with our loved ones and not have to worry about death because the "last enemy death will be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) He has also provided a hope of the resurrection for our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death when he says that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29)

May you find comfort in the God of all Comfort during this difficult time.

(2 Corinthians 1:3,4)
