“ I have only known Mr. Henry as a consummate gentleman since he and Mrs. Henry welcomed me into their home as a friend of Kevin’s over 30 years ago. His consistent kindness, warmth and grace will surely live on in the hearts of all who knew him. “ Al and I were crawly babies together and have been friends for all of these years. We were life time fans of all those old black and white cowboy movies, and often watched together Saturday mornings. Needless to say he will be missed by all that knew him.., and especially me.., Yippee Yi Yo! Later Bernette just tolerated the two grown men yelping at the TV..

Mr Henry as I have called him for over 30 years was a kind soul. A loving husband and father and grandfather. Often as we get older we learn how wise and strong someone is after they have left us. For his family and dear friends we celebrate his life and lessons that he taught in his life journey. I am blessed to have know Mr Henry for such a long time and grateful for the fellowship we shared. May God continue to provide comfort to all that miss him and loved him.

“ We’ve had the pleasure of having Mr. Henry in our lives for almost 40 years. He was a gentle giant in our eyes. Always so kind to our family.

We’ll never forget visiting Mr and Mrs Henry when the girls were little. Mr Henry lead us down to the playroom/basement and showed Amaris an album. Amaris exclaimed “That’s the biggest CD I’ve ever seen!” We all laughed hysterically.

May you rest in peace Mr. Henry. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. You are healed and in the Lord’s presence for all eternity. Praying for the entire Henry family. May you have peace that passes all understanding and comfort in knowing you were there for him when he needed you most.

All our love, The Norwoods
