“ Years ago, my mother shared with us how her and her siblings were separated early in childhood in Atlanta, GA. All were raised in different parts of the country; Aunt Dolores in Ohio, Aunt Dorothy in Chicago, Kathleen (my mother, the youngest) in Watts and on Pearl Harbor when bombed in WW11 and Uncle Dewitt who remained in Atlanta, GA. I did not know of my uncle until around 1974 when they were all reunited. It was a wondrous and joyous event, only possible by GOD. It was not until 1978 that I met my cousins in Atlanta and I would say that was an absolute gift to me and my siblings, everyone one of his children. Ever since then I've been proud to speak to the fact of my Atlanta roots and have only wanted to keep them in God's grace.

*Blessed the Lord for he is the author and finisher of life. Where are made in his image and filled with his wholly spirit that we may glorify his name in life and share with others, for he is a wonderful God.
"Though I shall walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me."*

Bless his Wife, Daughter and all my cousins.

“ God looked around his garden and found an empty space. Then he look down upon this earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God garden must be beautiful. He only takes the best. 🙏 RIP
