“ Arlene,

I pray that God wraps you and your family in his loving arms and give you a peace that surpasses all understanding. I hope your heart and mind reminds you of all the memories that you share with your mom and may these memories be the compass you need to guide you through.

I choose to light this rose candle as a virtual expression of healing, compassion, and unconditional support.

With an abundance of love and light.

“ *You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on*

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

Grandma

Thank you for the gift of love.

Now you're sharing it up above.

You had many things to say,

All in a caring way.

You always saw good in everyone.

No matter what they've done.

You were always the strength of the family. Now we must let you rest calmly. We say goodbye, as tears roll down our eyes. I know your place in heaven has a good view. You're telling GOD. I need to keep an eye on a few. I know you will always be in our hearts and minds. So grandma, I must go, but I'll never forget you're one of a kind.

“ Mrs. Alberta was such a caring woman. From the first time we met, she welcomed me into her family with open arms. She taught me so much over the years, from cooking, home remedies, and how to raise my children. I will always cherish the talks we had, and she will forever be in my heart.

“ *Mrs. Alberta(Mama) was a very sweet, loving, sharing and caring Lady. Always a lady.
She had a radiant smile that would light up the darkest of days and would make be laugh very loud when she shared her brown rice joke. She was the type of neighbor and friend that was easy to call Mama for she gave good spiritual advice and listened to you. She loved her children and family members dearly. Shetreated Mr. Rozzie like her King and he treated her like his Queen. Sleep on Mama you fought a good fight and God has answered your prayer. I'll see you in the morning.*

*Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. I pray and ask God to give you strength as you go thru this difficult time. I know how dear and close you two were. May your moms goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you and bring you peace. You may be feeling broken right now but God will see you thru all of this. Take it one day at a time. Please know that we love you and to you and your family we send our deepest condolences. We Love you Arlene ❤️
Jerry. Much love to the family.
Sincerely, Sherita & Sean*
