“ Uncle Webster.... For as long as I've know him that's what I've called him... although I may not be related to him, he never made me feel I weren't a part of his family... I remember the days going to the river and him standing at the gate waiting to give us a good buff about why Glennis and I went to the river... He always encouraged me to perform at the top in school and my studies... Long live your legacy

Mr Webster I remember passing in your car and would be so polite to those you meet. Then getting to know you better when I became friends with your children and came to your home you always made us feel welcome my sister Celia and I then we became family as you became the Gramps of my nephews and niece but now that you 'be reached the end of your journey we now have to part ways and may the angels of God escort you to over yonder to meet your God fly high and test in peace. To your Family be strong God will comfort you through this trying time

“ Mr. Webster was a quiet man and a man of few words, however he loved his family immensely.. He was a man to be on time for every single event or social gathering and thoroughly enjoyed himself... a life well lived....

“ To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

At this time of transformation we ask did i do enough in the time we shared, did i say what i should; i am thankful for this priceless opportunity of being neighbours with Mr Webster and his family. The pain of departing indicates that love drew us closer and has left treasured memories no one, nothing can remove. Rest in total peace as you move into an engine room of supremacy make music with your bottle and spoon orchestra, God is smiling. Until we meet again
