“ I remember meeting Aleshia and Willie for 1st time with open arms they welcomed me to their home for Surprise 50th birthday party for my Aunt Karen (Lou) Alesia brother set it up with last minute arrangements.. when I say we had a blast 🌟 I felt like it was my birthday 🎉 party 🎊.. I loved 😁 her personality, infectious smile, bluntness . She was beautiful 🤩 inside and out.. words cannot describe how much you are miss beautiful.. this hurts every time I see your picture or think 🤔 about you. Praying for you Willie and the girls. Much love ❤️ be encourage bro

“ All of my fondest memories of this loving human was surrounded by music! When we were teens, I came to stay with Aleshia, Momma LulaMae and Mr. Fennell for a week in preparation of a house party they allowed her to have.

One of the days we needed to run errands, we stopped to hang out at her older brother's "Big Al's" house. He let us sift through his massive collection of vinyls. Aleshia could sing and cover every "um, aw, oh, yeah in the lyrics" to every song we played 🥹. One of the selections was the O'Jays rendition of "Stairway to Heaven" it was a profound vibe then and now. Lesh, 🙌 I thank you for being a maiden in my wedding court and a light in my life!!!

Peace 🙌 my darling, I love you!

“ Rest In Heaven Cousin! I can not put into words your meaningful presence on this earth for not just me but everyone around you. I will never forget your wisdom, guidance, and pure class while growing up. You truly set the standard for Black girls and women. So many memories through the years at Uncle T's, partly due to your heart of gold. I wish we kept in touch after your move from Oakland but I always had the comfort of knowing you were safe and very loved by Willie and so many who adored you. Heaven has a new angel and you will always be loved!!

“ Aleisha and I grew up together on 107th Ave n Breed street. I was the baby of the village until Mr. and Mrs. Fennell had Aliesha. Well we're both now of age that we can ride our bikes outside but back then only right in front of our own house to the marker of another "village parent or neighbors house" and ohh boy we beta not go any further than that. So I see Lil Lee Lee outside and I decided to ride my bike across the street. Now remember the markers I told you about right. So I crossed the street but I was suppose to cross in front of Ms. Knight house which faces my homed drive way so she could watch me but I crossed at the corner where both Aliesha and my house were adjacent. Ms. Knight got me big time after Aliesha and I rode our bikes up and down her driveway to Ms. Knights house and the Mayes house and back. Yes she and I were restricted to certain areas and always well guarded by her brothers the fennell boys! But we both grew up to be awesome young ladies wives,mothers and Aliesha and I stayed friends till God called her home. I'm going to miss my lil sister but rest well baby girl, I got you!

“ Dear Aleshia, I will always cherish the 35 years of friendship with you. You are a gem, one of the most sweetest person I've ever met. My heart is broken that we won't continue our laughter and conversations. You are an Angel now, but I know we will meet again. I know you are smiling, that beautiful smile in the heavens. Rest Peacefully my sister. Praying for your family. 🙏🕊️🌹

Dear sister, Aleshia you will always be connected to my heartstrings. What a pleasure it has been to know you for 35 years! From young ladies in high school till we were women we stayed connected. You always had a smile on your face, and in all situations keeping things real. You are one of the sweetest person I have known and I'm gonna miss you so much. My heart is broken, knowing that we won't have our conversations and laughs, but our Savior knows best. Until we meet again, my beautiful sister!

“ The Aleshia I know stayed smiling in high school.... She was best dressed to me!!! I linked back up with her on Facebook and we stayed laughing!! Her birthday is a day before mine. I patiently waited for the days she would post her family; that Nalah have a smile that made my heart melt. I loved how you can see the love between her and June through photos. I'm going to miss her spirit; her funny posts and just Her. Rest in God's arms my friend. See you later Lesh.....I love you.

“ I met Aleyshia when she took a job at WTO in a newly formed office in the A. We instantly clicked and became friends. I knew she was something special! Sadly the office had to close and my interactions slowed but then she found me on FB and I could live vicariously through her. My heart hurts for her family and many many friends. Saying a prayer and lighting a candle for my girl! See you one day again! ❤️K
