“ To my Auntie... My real life angel... My love.... You have blessed me so much! You have allowed God to use you on my behalf so many times just for prayer. For the past 4 years you have strategically called every morning right before my big exams and prayed with me. I love you for who you are and who you have been to me. God has lifted you up and you are now living in mansion not made by man's hands. There is no pain there. I see you running to the bosom of Jesus and oh what a sight that is! I love you and miss your earthly touch but I know that you are with our Heavenly Father and I will see you again one day!!

Love Always,
Your Great Niece,
Anisha

“ I offer condolences and comfort from the Scriptures to you all. God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in God's loving promise to restore dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Revelation 21:3-5.
