“ To the Family of Sweet Aletha Richardson,

Our heart goes out to you, and we wish you nothing but comfort and strength. No one can ever prepare us for the departure of a loved one. Our prayer is that, even though your world is so dark now, you are able in time to see some light in the beautiful memories you had with your loved one. For it is in those cherished moments that you shared together, you will find comfort and her love will continue to guide your path.

“ My auntie Letha!!! Always full of joy and laughter..... she was such a ray of sunshine to be around! She loved to have a good time and was very stylish. I styled her hair on this picture! I’m going to miss her coming to Florida to spend time with us. I’m going to miss her phone calls to check on me and my children. I’m going to miss her welcoming our family with open arms anytime we came to visit Georgia. I’m going to miss her laugh. It was contagious! I love you auntie Chequita, and I know that you will miss her so much more. With love Princess and Family

“ Family is a circle that never disconnects, it is free flowing, always pouring into, never pouring out of, that is why we can never be disconnected from being family. That is why GOD made us a family. That is why HE calls us brothers and sisters. That is why HE said we are adopted into one family. By blood or adoption, we are one! We grieve as one, we celebrate as one, love and strengthen each other as one family. We love you and our prayers and presence are with you. Love Andrea & your family in LA.

“ On the journey through our sadness, may God provide you with the strength and courage necessary to get through this tough time. Cousin, I am sending my love and peace to you during this challenging time. My heart is with you, though I'm not able to physically attend the memorial service. I am holding you close in my thoughts and prayers as you navigate this difficult time—and I wish you peace, love, and healing. When you have lost a parent, there is a void that will never be filled, and I am so sorry for your loss. Although no words can take away the sorrow that you feel, I pray that you feel some comfort knowing that others care and are keeping you lifted in prayer. If in can help in any way, please let me know. Love you tons.

“ Family, you have my deepest condolences and prayers. Aletha was a very unique person and it showed in the way she dressed and her personality. I met her while working the Food and Clothing Ministry at the Victory for the World Church. She sort of frightened me in a way, but later I found her to be a sweet and caring person. I always joked with her about her boots and her jewelry. I said to her once, “now you can just take off those boots and hand them over”. She point blank and matter of factly said to me, “No Ma’am you can’t have my boots” and proceeded to laugh with that deep and raspy voice of hers. Then she would quickly change the subject. She always greeted me with a smile. I am going to miss her kind face around the Victory Church as well as that genuine and sweet personality of hers and no to mention that raspy voice of hers. Rest well Aletha! 🥹❤️🙏🕊️
