“ I am always sorry to hear of the loss of a family's loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I hope that as each day passes you will continue to be strengthened and encouraged from Family and friends. Please know that our Heavenly Father knows what an impact this has had on your lives. He is always there for you to give you the comfort you need (2Corinthians 1:3,4). I have found Isaiah 41:10,13 to also be faith strengthening and reassuring. I truly hope you will continue to receive all of the love and support that you need.

“ To the Family and friends of Ms. Stewart: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer Scriptural comfort to you all. God made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Joshua 23:14 and Revelation 21:3-5.
