“ My prayers goes out to the family in this time of grief. Sorry I wasn't able to attend in person but I did enjoy the service online.

I remember Uncle Sleepy would pick me up to go to Bingo with him. I lived 5 mins from where he attended. I always had fun playing. From the time we met until his passing he's always treated me and my children like family. He was I'll but still attended my Son funeral. I know he will hang with my son Troy-Justice now. May they both rest in power and Love.

Uncle sleepy you will always be remembered. You were our first friend when we came to the US. You treated us as family, you never waver. You never missed your God sons birthday or ours. You will surely be missed. So sorry i was unable to my respect but the children did. Take yourrest until we meet again.

“ Uncle Sleepy I pray you are resting in peace and power. I remember the summer visits playing with my cousins at your house and you always having a smile on your face. No more pain. Love and strength to my Cousins & Aunt Geneva. I know firsthand what you are going through. Just remember the great times shared and he is at full capacity living his best now!!! Love, Trisha (Scott) Hensley
