

Alfred Hyatt, Jr

June 18, 1954 - November 27, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Alfred Hyatt Jr., a beloved father, grandfather, and friend, who departed this world on Thursday, November 27, 2025, at the age of 71. Born in Fairfield, Alabama, on Friday, June 18, 1954, Alfred was a cherished resident of Hampton, Georgia, where he dedicated his life to his family, community, and country.

Alfred is remembered for his steadfast dedication and hard work as a home contractor with Pride One Stop, where he spent many years helping build dreams, one home at a time. His commitment to quality and service left a lasting mark on countless families and neighborhoods throughout his career.

A proud Army veteran, Alfred served his country with honor and dignity. His service exemplified the values of integrity and commitment that he carried throughout his life, in both his professional endeavors and personal relationships.

Family, friends, and community members are invited to gather in loving memory of Alfred Hyatt Jr. during a visitation to be held at Gregory B Levett and Son Funeral Home - Flat Shoals Location in Decatur, Georgia, on Thursday, December 11, 2025, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. A formal interment with military honors will take place at Georgia National Cemetery in Canton, Georgia, on Monday, December 15, 2025, at 9:30 a.m.

Alfred leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, and generosity that will endure in the hearts of all who knew him. Arrangements are graciously provided by Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory- South Dekalb.
