“ Can't believe it. I'm still in shock. She was the most precious person I know. Pure at Heart. Heart of Gold. Closest thing to God there is. I remember sitting at the counter for hours just watching her cook food from scratch and tell stories that we so animated, exciting and funny.

We definitely lost one. An angel in the flesh.

I been around for a minute, never met anyone like her, pure and good hearted. and that's a fact.

I still can't believe it. It's going to take a while to get use to this.

Luckily I have her daughter Deana to remind me of her. Closest thing to her. Almost exactly like her.

“ I didn't get the privilege of personally meeting Ms Alice, but heard so many wonderful deeds she shared with people that knew her. Through her daughter Deana, I do know she was a wonderful mother, wife, grandmother and friend to all that know her. I offer my condolences to the family for your loss and commend you for taking such good care of this precious jewel. May her precious memories be with you always.

“ THE DASH

*I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone
From the beginning to the end.
He noted first came the date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears.
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between the years.*

*For that dash represents all the time
That they spent alive on Earth.
And now only those who loved them
Know what that little line is worth.
For it matters not how much we own,
The cars, the house, the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.*

*So think about this long and hard,
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.*

*And be less quick to anger,
And show appreciation more.
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile.
Remembering that this special dash*

Might only last a little while.

*So when your eulogy is being read,
With your life's actions to rehash,
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?
-LINDA ELLIS*

*Mama, I am forever grateful for how you spent your dash and for allowing me to be a part of it! You are the example and your legacy lives through so many you have imprinted upon.
I Love You Giiiiirrrlll!*
