“ I wish to send my deepest condolences to Allen's family. I was Allen's Chief Probation Officer for many years at the Lawrenceville Probation Office before I retired. Allen was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He had such a sweet spirit and I never heard him say a bad word about anyone. He was such a pleasure to work with and I cherish having him for a fellow employee for so many years. He will truly be missed. Prayers for the family for comfort during this time.
