“ What a wonderful, funny and kind man who worked hard, loved his family and his friends. I have so many wonderful memories of our times together in Atlanta and on Tybee Island (with Evelyn of course). Lots of parties and nights out having fun. I will never forget when my mother died suddenly a couple of months after 9/11 when Al called to speak to my husband Bob--they had worked together since 1977. Bob was out so we started talking and I told Al about my mother's sudden passing and I started to cry. To my surprise Al started crying...so we sat on the phone and cried together. He had met my mom several times at the many big parties we used to have when we lived in Atlanta. But I suspect he was just crying for me at my loss. I will never forget that. He was a gentle, sweet soul and we will miss him terribly.
