

Alphonso Jackson

July 19, 1957 - October 6, 2022

Alphonso Jackson, (affectionately known as Big Al/StovePipe) was born July 19, 1957 to the late Ruth Belle Jackson and Johnny E. Henderson. He departed this life on October 6, 2022 at his residence in Lithonia, Ga. Alphonso was a sweet, loving, and caring brother. He was also very opinionated and never failed to speak his mind! He grew up in the nurturing community of Carver Homes where he made many lifelong friends. He attended Carver High and participated in the JROTC program. Al began his Christian walk as a member of St Paul AME Church. Later in life, he was baptized and became an active member of New Beginnings Interdenominational Church under the ministry of his cousin, Pastor Maudie Snipes.

Al had a zest for life and enjoyed many different interests. He was an excellent cook who took great pride in preparing his BBQ ribs. He had a knack for all types of handyman work and could often be found helping his family with whatever they needed. Al loved to travel to various family functions where he was usually the life of the party. He loved to fish, play card games, listen to his music and just generally have a good time.

Al was preceded in death by his parents, his grandparents, Ed and Eula Jackson, and his beloved nephew Ricardo Garvin.

He leaves to mourn his passing and celebrate his life Daughter Creashundra (Christopher) James, Granddaughter Precious Daniel and Great Grandson, Ethan Holley, Siblings Alice (Robert) Garvin, Raiford (Belphine) Jackson, Jeffery (Cathy) Jackson, and Calvin Jackson, Uncles, Rev Charles Jackson (Maggie) and Eddie Jackson, Aunts Annette Warren, Rose Johnson and Myrtis Jackson, Nieces and Nephews Garvin Alyssa Garvin, Tecorrie Jackson, Cherrise Jackson, Rhaia Jackson, Jeffery Jackson, Jasmyn Jackson, Moira Holland, Jami Jackson, Kayla Jackson and Jada Jackson, Sister-Cousins Angela Turner and Marie Clayton, Honorary Nephews Christian Warren and Richard Gavin and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.
