“ On behalf of the Truitt- Davis family, I would like to express my deepest sympathy and sorrow for the loss of Alvia. JB and my son George have been friends since 1st grade. I never imagined I would also gain a friend in Alvia. Alvia was kind, supportive and was a good person who will truly be missed. To Micheal, JB and Justin our thoughts and prayers are with you! George and I will never forget the memories and bonds Alvia created for the boys. God Bless!

“ On behalf of the Thompson's and Oldfield's family I want to express condolence to the Brown's family. Death is never welcomed but we are happy to know that one day death and sorrow will vanish. Until then let us keep our faith in God knowing that if we're faithful we will see each other again in the earth made new. God be with you Mickey and family.

“ Alvia was so special to me and our entire Coke scholars team. She sat just a couple desks over from me on our old floor and we hit it off right from the start. She took me to a couple plays at the arts center nearby and we always had so much fun. Most recently I was making cards with her for kids in the hospital and made one for her too that made her a little teary. Little did I know that would be the last time I saw her in person even though we had been trying to get lunch together over the past few months. This life will be a little less bright without her in it. My prayers and love goes out to her husband and boys whom she loved so much!

“ I can only hope to one day be remembered as someone who was as good to others as Alvia was. She was an incredibly kind, generous and intelligent person. I was so lucky to count Alvia as a client and friend. Below are a few comments I've received from my co-workers about Alvia. Even via very brief interactions, Alvia always made an impression on people. I will miss her.

"She certainly was special and a pleasure to work with. I remember her as kind and funny. She did have a big laugh. So sad."

"Todd - I met this lady just once, in LA almost 6 years ago, and although I had the opportunity to speak with her for less than two minutes I still remember her so very well. Some people that we meet have a special kind of quality that you just can't quite put your finger on, but when they have something to say you instinctively know that you should be listening. I'm truly sorry to hear this news."

"Very sad news Todd. I spent one day with her on an executive advisory council meeting and while that was 4 years ago, she left a lasting impression. A wonderful lady who loved talking about her kids, work and her love for Atlanta. She left an impact."

“ In loving memory of a remarkable woman, Alvia, who left an indelible mark on our lives.. Today, as we honor her memory, we also celebrate the lives of her beloved sons, Jonathan and Justin.

Jonathan and Justin, your mother was a shining beacon of love, strength, and kindness. She poured her heart and soul into raising both of you, and her unconditional love was a constant source of guidance and support.

She nurtured your dreams, celebrated your achievements, and wiped away your tears. She was not only your mother but also your friend, confidante, and a pillar of strength.

In this time of sorrow, you must remember that your mother's spirit lives on through the love she cultivated in each of you. Her legacy will forever be intertwined with your lives, shaping the men you are today and the men you will become tomorrow. Carry her values and teachings close to your hearts, and let her light continue to shine through your actions.

As you navigate this difficult journey of grief, please know that you are not alone. Your family and friends stand by your side, ready to offer solace and comfort whenever you need it.

Lean on each other, share your stories and memories, and find solace in the bond that unites you as brothers.

Jonathan and Justin, your mother's love will forever be a part of you, guiding you through life's challenges and reminding you of the strength within. She may no longer be physically present, but her spirit will always surround you, filling your hearts with warmth and tenderness.

Jonathan and Justin, may the memories you shared with your mother bring you comfort in the days ahead. Know that she would want nothing more than to see both of you live fulfilling lives, carrying her love with you every step of the way. You are in our thoughts, and we offer our unwavering support during this time of mourning.

Rest in peace, Alvia. Your love and presence will forever be cherished.

And to Jonathan and Justin, may you find solace in the embrace of your loved ones and the enduring legacy of your remarkable mother.

“ In Loving Memory: A Tribute to My Sister-in-Law Alvia Elizabeth Brown

In the depths of our sorrow, I paused today to honor and celebrate the life of a remarkable woman who has touched our hearts in countless ways.

With heavy hearts and tearful eyes, we bid farewell to a sister, a friend, and a cherished member of our family. Though her physical presence may be gone, the memories and love she shared will forever be etched in our souls.

Words seem inadequate to capture the essence of who she was—a beacon of light that illuminated our lives with her kindness, warmth, and infectious laughter. Her spirit was one that radiated joy and love, bringing comfort and solace to those who were fortunate enough to know her.

As a sister-in-law, Alvia seamlessly became a sister by choice, an unwavering pillar of support through both joys and hardships. Her unwavering faith in family bonds strengthened the ties that bound us together, and her nurturing nature embraced us all, creating a haven of love and acceptance.

She had a gift for turning ordinary moments into cherished memories.

From lively family gatherings filled with laughter and shared stories, to quiet moments of intimate conversation, she had a way of making everyone feel valued and heard. Her compassionate heart overflowed with empathy, offering solace to those in need and extending a helping hand without hesitation.

Her infectious spirit was matched only by her indomitable strength. Even in the face of adversity, she faced each challenge with unwavering courage and resilience, inspiring us all to face our own trials with grace and determination. She taught us the value of perseverance, reminding us that life's obstacles can be overcome.

with a fighting spirit and a heart filled with love.

Though she may no longer walk beside us, her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched. We will forever carry her memory in our hearts, finding solace in the knowledge that she lives on through the love she left behind. As we mourn her loss, let us also celebrate the beautiful moments we shared, the laughter we experienced, and the love that bound us together.

Alvia, your absence leaves an irreplaceable void, but your spirit will forever guide us through life's journey. We are grateful for the time we had with you, and we find solace in knowing that you are now at peace.

Rest well, Alvia, knowing that your memory will forever be treasured and your love will always be with us.

“ *In Loving memory of Alvia Elizabeth Brown
Sunrise: September 7, 1968- July 5, 2023*

Today, I pay tribute to a remarkable woman whose light touched all our lives. As we navigate the depths of sorrow, let us also celebrate the beautiful journey she shared with my beloved brother.

Alvia was a source of joy, love, and strength. Her infectious smile could brighten the darkest of days, and her compassionate heart knew no bounds.

She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a cherished friend to many.

In the face of adversity, Alvia displayed unwavering courage and resilience.

Her unwavering spirit inspired us all and taught us the true meaning of determination and grace. She leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness that will forever be etched in our hearts.

To my brother Mikey who walked hand in hand with Alvia through life's joys and sorrows, we stand by your side during this unimaginable loss.

Your unwavering love and unwavering dedication to her were a testament to the bond you shared. Remember that you are never alone, and we are here to provide comfort, support, and strength in the days ahead.

May the memories you hold dear bring you solace and remind you of the beautiful moments you shared together.

Lean on the love of family and friends, for we are here to lift you up when you feel the weight of grief.

As we bid farewell to Alvia, let us honor her memory by living each day with the same zest for life, love, and compassion that she embodied. May her spirit guide us and remind us to cherish every precious moment and hold our loved ones close.

Rest in peace, Alvia.

Your legacy will forever shine brightly, and your love will continue to illuminate our lives.

Alvia you were a rare gem. God saw that you were getting tired and a cure was not to be so He wrapped His arms around you and say come home my child to me.

Words can't express the sadness of losing my sister in law.

To my brother Mikey and sons Jonathan and Justin, I pray that the Lord will comfort and strengthened you all in this sad moment.

Sleep on Alvia, sleep and take your rest.
