God's patience for his absence.
His timing is perfect.

is constant. He's always with you.

“ Al Benn the journey with you ended on this side sooner than I ever expected. God had another plan. You have not only been a wonderful and inspirational stepfather since I was also able to call you a dear friend. Your personality and your GQ mannerisms proved how much you meant to so many people. The laughs we shared and the talks we had about our travel experiences and adventures over 30 years will forever be etched in my heart. I thank you wholeheartedly for not only being in our lives as a stand up stepfather, but I am grateful to say that you always since I was 17 treated our mother with love, unyielding respect and you showed her that you were not only her loving husband, but you were without a doubt always her ride and die friend. That is honorable! You will be missed so much!!! You take your rest now Al Benn- you know it is never bye bye with me. I will see you one day and we will rejoice.
. Love you forever - Shelia aka SheShe

“ Alvin “Booga” Bennett a southwest high school class of 75 graduate who had many admirers. My memories of him was positive as he always carried himself in a gentleman like manner. A very polished and sharp looking guy with a million dollars smile that almost every girl admired . He never was involved in negative mess and troublesome activity and he loved sports,Basketball particularly. He always came back to Macon to class of 75 functions and to pay his respect to classmates who deceased. Horace Smith another Macon and Southwest class of 75 guy was perhaps Alvin best friend and spiritual leader. I know Horace is feeling this as well as Others friends and love ones who loved and admired “Booga” Bennett . As a representative of class of 75 of southwest high school Macon Ga , I offer the condolences, farewells and blessings to Alvin Bennett as the lord accepts his soul and his newest assignment in Heaven. Rest well my brother, you made a difference with your life and gifts,
