

Alvis Deleon Battle

November 23, 1954 - October 2, 2025

Alvis DeLeon Battle transitioned this life on October 2, 2025. He was born November 23, 1954, to and was preceded in death by Frank Gorham Battle II (November 1962) and Josephine Foster Battle (April 2004). Alvis was the second of five children and proudly embraced his role as big brother.

Alvis lived a humble yet extraordinary life. Though his accomplishments were many, he was best known as a devoted husband, a loving father, and a cherished grandfather. He and his beloved wife, Rose, shared over 50 years together, building a full and beautiful life.

They were blessed with two children, a son and a daughter, and together they created a home filled with love.

They traveled the country side by side, enjoyed hosting family and friends, dining at some of Atlanta's best restaurants, and most of all, spending quality time together at home. Known as "a fixer," Alvis found joy in tinkering with projects, always ready to tackle anything on the honey-do list. He had a passion for cars and football, and in his hometown of Rocky Mount, NC, he still holds an unbeaten record as a star running back. Alvis dedicated 37 years of service as a Fire Captain at Fort McPherson and Fort Gillem and at least 5 years to the Rocky Mount NC Fire Department. His bravery and heroism earned him the 2024 Diamond Award, as well as letters of recognition from President Obama and U.S. Senators for his service with Fort McPherson and Fort Gillem Fire Departments. After retiring from the fire department, he continued his career with Delta Airlines. No matter how busy he was, his greatest joy was always his family especially his six grandchildren, whom he adored.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Rose; his daughter, Naja; his son, Aldrick; (Amber), his treasured grandchildren, Blair, Bryce, Brandon, Naila, Avaia, and Alyra; his siblings, Frank (wife Diamond), Cynthia, Damita, and Lorraine, nieces and nephews.
