“ Dear Davis Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ I had much, much respect and admiration for Ms. Amanda Davis. She was so beautiful inside and out. Rest in Heaven. You are now one of God's Angels in Heaven as you were here on earth. You will never be forgotten. Because you made a difference in the community. With your ever giving spirit and kindness. I did not know you personally. I was one of your many fans.

To the family. You were blessed for 62 years to have such a wonderfully made human being. May God keep you and carry you through this difficult time.

“ Amanda had that air of success - even as I remember our early days in the Charlotte broadcasting market. Her quiet courage and confidence took her far. Fond memories of her fun, kind and happy spirit kept her close despite the disconnected years. She will be sorely missed.

Our condolences are extended to Amanda's family, friends and colleagues.

“ Amanda Davis was truly a beautiful angel that glowed where ever she was. I know the heavenly lights are sparkling like jewels & diamonds in her promotion to heaven. My heart is saddened knowing she will be deeply missed. She impacted so many lives by just being herself. She was an icon that poured her heart out to what she loved helping & giving to others with a passion. It's so hard to say good bye to a loving caring genuine person. Amanda wear your crown in heaven for you surely wore it here on earth. Thanks for how you shared your life with the Atlanta community. Rest in the assurance of knowing Job Well Done! Deepest condolences & sympathy to the family. Blessings of Peace be Still.

“ My husband and I (Joseph and Madge Buskey), would like to express our sincere heartfelt prayers and condolences to the lovely Amanda Davis' family. For me personally, I am grateful to God to have watched such a classy, beautiful woman of God on television for many years... Her smile was priceless and needed in a city that sometimes forget that all of us are simply mere humans with our own set of challenges! Ms. Davis left this earthly home showing all us, that although we may bend like a palm tree, we will not break because we have an advocate, Jesus, able to fight for us and in doing so securing our eternal home in heaven. Rest awesome woman of God...💖

“ Soror Amanda, you were a light in the television industry, to this country and especially to the city of Atlanta. Your beauty, poise, grace, caring, love and yes courage were qualities that you possessed both on and off the camera. As you have now moved on 'beyond the wall', you leave behind an extraordinary life and career as well as so many like myself who cheered for you on a regular basis. God only picks the best flowers for His garden. That's why he chose you. Now continue to bask in the glow as you've come face to face with the Father. Thank you for all that you did on this side for the community and the city. You will NEVER be forgotten. Take your rest and I'll meet you on the other shore. God bless you and your family!

I wouldn't watch no other news channel. Coming back from my vacation and receiving a text stating that Amanda Davis had a major stroke I was without words. Her present will be missed, but we know that God never make mistakes. There's another Angel watching over the family and friends. Resting in the arms with God. Rest on your work has been completed.

The first thing that comes to mind is her smile. I don't recall ever seeing her not smile. I also recall her ushering at Cascade UM at the annual Advent Choir Concert. She was beautiful on the outside and bubbling over with the same inside. I don't think she knew it, but I pray she did. Soror you were loved and you will be missed💕💕

“ Ms. Davis was truly a beautiful woman and I admired her honesty and straightforwardness as she confronted her demons... with His help, of course. While I am saddened over her sudden passing, I am comforted in knowing that she is celebrating her freedom from this sinful world in Heaven. May His holy spirit comfort her family, friends, and colleagues and may she rest in His eternal peace.

“ We're sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Jesus encourages us: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me.”~ John 14:1. God is faithful and “He sent His only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him.” ~ 1John 4:9. Our sincere condolences to you all...
