Words Spoken

Amanda Vanterpool (Boxen) Poole was the fourth of 11 children born to Stanton and Violet Boxen, on July 14, 1938 in Ancon Canal Zone, Panama.

Amanda had a love for music and singing. After graduating from High School she pursued a singing career. On January 22, 1958 she married SFC

Clarence M. Poole where she began a life as a military wife. To this union four children were born, Clarence Jr., Gregorio, Amalia and Edward.

Amanda loved being a wife and mother as she traveled with her husband to various duty stations throughout the United States and Europe. After the retirement of her husband they resided in Florida for many years. In 1999, they relocated to Georgia after the Hurricane Andrew Disaster. She enjoyed living in Georgia, gardening and spending time with her children and grandchildren. After a long battle with health issues, on March 25, 2014 the Lord called Amanda home.

Amanda was preceded in death by: her parents; and four brothers, Brinton, James, Clyde, and Roberto.

Amanda leaves to cherish her memories: her husband of 56 years, Clarence M. Poole, Sr.; four children, Clarence Jr. of New York City, Gregorio (Jayne) of Boca Raton, FL, Amalia of Lawrenceville, GA, and Edward (Jackie) of Grayson, GA; seven grandchildren whom she loved and adored, Armand, Bryan, Jessica, Emmanuel, Jalen, Jeffrey Jr. and Ignozzio; six sisters, Lynn, Rita, Una, Carmen, Millicent, and Gloria; special nephew whom mom thought of as her own son, Demetrius Poole; brother-in-law, Moses Poole; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
