

Amiah Zoe Lord

October 9, 2019 - October 27, 2020

Our little warrior, that is what we called her. From her first breath she had to fight. She was not expected to be born alive, yet she persevered. Born around 3 lbs. the deck was stacked against her, yet she persevered. Was told she would not make it to a year, yet she persevered. We were able to celebrate her 1st birthday October 9, 2020.

Amiah was always able to overcome the odds. She was sharp, calculating, and very strategic. How? She expressed these attributes to us every day. The way she interacted with us, we learned from her every day. She expressed love & kindness as well as strength & power. She knew what she liked, and she knew what she did not like.

Amiah was filled with a passion for life. She always sought to do more than what she could naturally do; always working to improve to the next level. She will always be a part of our family and in our hearts.

She leaves behind to cherish precious memories, Clarence & Sharlencia Lord (parents), Avari Lord (sister), Aviah Lord (twin sister). grandparents: Ornette Lord, Tercena Johnson, Errol Johnson; Aunts and uncles; Steve & Monique Johnson, Dr. Bede & Allyson Anyawu, Dr. Michael & Nikesha Lord, Tracy Lord. Cousins; Amanze, Amanna, Amadi, & Amaala Anyawu; Destiny Lord. God-parents and host of family and friends.

“ Amiah, I called her Toot Toot the Warrior as she was my little spirit that “could”. For a such a big spirit that was trapped in a little body that couldn’t even begin to hold what GOD had in store for her!! For it wasn’t Amiah who was tired but yet her body that could not endure the strength of her soul, her spirit. So for every second that she was allowed to use her vessel, she showed us her strength, her love, & her determination and for someone so young, she taught us perseverance & patience. Beloved she will always be, remembered because if you were Blessed to know her, you would never forget her and for all of these things Amiah will truly be missed. Let’s not forget her mother who fought for Amiah valiantly often not sleeping or resting because mom knew that Amiah was not sleeping nor resting and for her father who held them both to adorn his his shoulders, never wavering but being the dad that was their beacon of light in the dark, often behind the scenes but their pillar of strength. For Amiah brought everyone together to become one and GOD kept them together as one. Except fir Amiah as her twin Aviah will always be a reminder that Amiah spirit was so enormous that apart of her spilled over into her, so that we could see her smile and here her laughter, Aviah was Amiah’s voice too!! So live now, free of the boundaries that your body bestowed upon you, soar high, laugh and smile to no end and we will soon see you again!! GOD thank you for allowing us to be Blessed to know and be apart of an Angel as precious as Amiah!! Love always and ever Amiah!! Prayers and condolences to the family.

“ Clarence & Sharlencia,

Even though I never got the chance to meet Amiah, I was able to see her through the very vivid picture that Sharlencia painted with her words. Amiah was truly a fighter. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead, and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. Always remember that you all are in my prayers.
