“ Unfortunately, today October, 9th I found out Amy has passed. I am in utter shock. What an immeasurable loss. My heart is broken. Mrs. Sanders was a close friend of my Mother's and such a kind soul. My mother always spoke of Amy's accomplishments and I remember hearing of how she traveled and thinking how brave she was! Amy was a sweetheart, gentle and kind. God please keep this family during this difficult time. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.

“ To the Sanders Family, Friends, & Students,
Our sincerest condolences and prayers to the family! As a precious daughter, sister, friend, and lover of children, Amy's legacy of being a caring top-notch teacher will always be appreciated and remembered. My daughter's year of Pre-K with Ms. Amy as her teacher was a special foundational year of smiles and laughter while learning that I know was due to having Ms. Amy as her teacher: My daughter's excitement in the mornings to go to Pre-K and her reluctance to leave at the end of the day definitely was credited to Ms. Amy making learning an exciting adventure to be daily undertaken for the rest of my daughter's and her classmate's lives. Thank you, Ms. Amy. Sending loving prayers of comfort and peace to to family....

“ The first time that I met Amy, she was wearing a pair of denim overalls with her name, “AMY” , appliquéd in yellow fabric down one leg. She was 4yrs. old. We were stationed at Ft. Stewart and lived next door to Clarence and Tonie. Over the next 3 years Amy became my little ‘best friend’, keeping me company as I cleaned, cooked, PUT ON MAKEUP... she was a great spy, telling me whenever ‘ Mr. Peters’ had a beer after finishing yard work...she was precious .

I cannot question God’s plans for us. I can, however, say a prayer of thanksgiving that He allowed us to meet.

My your kind spirit live in all of us!

“ *Mrs. Toni Sanders and Family,
This morning I was stunned to learn that Ms. Amy is no longer with us. Though I haven't seen her recently, my mom and my husband have both shared that they had the opportunity to see and speak with her in recent months. Ms. Amy truly made a positive and lasting impact on my nephew and 2 of my children. I thought they'd be able to "pass the torch" on to their younger cousin/sister, but this wasn't possible. We remember Ms. Amy as a kind and patient woman with a beautiful smile. Her voice certainly matched her sweet and calm spirit. I thank God that we will see her again in Heaven! We pray for peace, comfort and guidance for Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and their son. Much love to you all!*

“ My condolences to the Sanders family. I am heartbroken but very thankful to have crossed paths with such a kind and caring person. Amy taught my son in Pre-K and later on, my grandson also, in her Busy Bee class. She has been a favorite teacher and helped to set the pace for their future learning.

God's Blessings and comfort to the family. Rest in Peace Dear Amy.
