“ To my baby brother, I'm sorry we did not talk the last several months...maybe if we had, you would not have been in harms way. I finally acquired in November with the help of the Governor's Office of Louisiana into your death and your death certificate. Shocked and appalled that you suffered for days with Plesiomonas Shigelloides - related to the ingestion of contaminated water or Seafood and why apparently without medical attention will be revealed...You should not have had to leave this earth so early and in that way. The ones who truly loved you will come forth and unite to honor and grant your final rest in peace!

“ I worked with Andre during his time at Comcast. We were peers. He was so great to work with; always supportive and made meetings fun with his great sense of humor. I happen to be scrolling through old Facebook messages and I came upon a chat we had in 2013. By this time I had moved back to NY and we were catching up on life's events. As always he had jokes. Something told me to search for him so I can see what née roles he'd landed recently and I came across the news of his recent passing. I'm so sad to hear the loss of such a good guy. Sending my sincerest condolences to his fiancé and family.

“ Dear Andre,

The first time I met you, nearly 30 years ago as next door neighbors in Baltimore, I was struck by your lighthearted humor, your charming smile, your friendliness and warmth, and the ease of being in your presence.

You told me about your acting career and that you were rehearsing in a play where you were a major character. You were passionate about capturing the character and I wish I would have seen you perform.

I remember once when, as little boys of 9 and 10 years old, your nephew, Tony, and my son, Elijah, were held at knife point for their bicycles by older teenage boys. You and your sister Adrienne, rescued the youngsters and then ran after the thieves. You reacted so quickly that you didn't stop to put shoes on and after a long chase through Pimlico Racetrack, your feet got cut up pretty badly. I was impressed by your heroism and sense of justice, even at your own expense.

I was moved that you invited me to your wedding and it was an honor to be there. After you moved to Atlanta, I always enjoyed catching up with you during your brief visits back home to Baltimore.

I was shocked to hear the news of your passing and still feel heavy-hearted to know that your spirit has departed this earthly life. Wherever you are, Andre, may you rest in peace knowing that you left your mark on this earth and that your spirit lives in the hearts and minds of all those who knew and loved you.

*With love,
Mary Tessman*

“ Andre is my baby brother. He brought much joy to family members, friends and colleagues. He kept me laughing all the time and always gave me good advice, as if he was the older brother.

Andre, I touched your face and stained your suit in death with tears at your service. You touched my heart in life by reminding me how to love myself, wife, and family. One day I will see you on the other side, but not just yet...Still have some living to do. We may never understand why God decided to take you from us at this time. But, it gives me comfort to know that you, my brother, did not die alone. You died in the arms of your loving fiancé with her family around you. I love you Bro. You set the bar high, my brother, and grew into quite a man. I am hurting Soldier. But, I know you want me to endeavor to persevere. Watch over me Brother. Love you to the more maximum.... Always.

Thank you everyone who echoed love for Andre in life and in death. Your warm wishes and condolences are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely

Angelo Conge

“ *To My Brother Dre;
It breaks my heart that you were taken so suddenly and unexpectedly far from your home. It breaks my heart that I have to wonder what were your last thoughts as you were left alone. It breaks my heart that I will never know what truly happened to you and why. It breaks my heart that your wishes to be eternally resting with our mother was ignored. Dre do not be saddened by the ignorance of some. Although I was not privy to your service, know that I made it there and that I will continue to strive to carry through your wishes of getting you back home to our mother!*
