“ Muriel, this is to express my sincerest condolences to you and the Broomfield family. I remember when you introduced me to Andrew at Express Lanes. I also remember how much he seemed to enjoy coming to the bowling center and watching you bowl. He was so full of life and a joy to be around. May the memories of the beautiful moments that you shared provide you some peace and comfort in the days ahead. I pray that God continued to bless and keep you. With much love and affection, Brenda Adams

“ In Memory of my Older Brother Andrew:

Andrew once I found out you were my one & only Big brother, it was a pleasure in getting better acquainted with you 27 years prior to your illness.

I am thankful for your listening ear and our transparent conversations. Also thankful for those pep talks, your funny playful sense of humor that kept me laughing, for those funny Birthday Cards you sent me, for those surprising quick snapshot pics you took with it camera catching me off-guard 😂 and teaching me how to make tasty fluffy scrambled eggs your way 🤖😂 using a special ingredient when I came to ATL to visit you when your were a bachelor 😂...And for the time we did fun stuff together whenever I came down to ATL.

When we last talked, you were in good optimistic spirits, and it was a pleasure to see the smile and awesome glow on ur face in your birthday party pic a few weeks ago..you didn't look like what had an illness... that's a blessing to me... Although we were miles away, you were close at heart. Although, I am thankful you don't have to suffer anymore, you will be truly missed. These past few days hasn't been easy for me...filled with grief along with recovering from a very painful surgery, but the Lord has given me the strength to press on. Although I'm grieving over ur transition from this world yet I have happy memories that we shared...

Love you much!❤️
