

Andrew Louis Harrison Jr

April 28, 1952 - January 9, 2022

On Sunday January 9, 2022, Andrew Louis Harrison Jr. was called home to glory at the age of 69. He was a courageous man of God who was filled with warmth and kindness. He will surely be missed but never forgotten. Anyone who has ever met him had met a friend.

Andrew L Harrison Jr. (Andy, or Harrison, as he was affectionately called) was born on April 28, 1952 in Philadelphia, PA to Doris & Andrew Harrison Sr. (both deceased). His brothers and sisters include Donald Harrison (deceased), Deborah Bright (Alpheus Bright, Jr. deceased), Joan Harrison, Joyce Harrison, Ethelyn Harrison (deceased) and his cousin Robert Clemmons, who was like a brother.

As a child growing up in Philadelphia, Andy attended Bethany Baptist Church. Andy was a popular student at Edward W. Bok Technical High School, where he starred as quarterback on the football team. After graduating high school in 1969, he was enlisted into the military. He proudly served his country in the United States Air Force as a Combat Engineer, for 12 years which included a tour of duty in Vietnam from 1970–1971.

In 1971, he met a lovely young lady named Carolyn Shuler while based in the port city of Charleston, SC. They married in June 1972 and began a new life as husband and wife. They were married for 49 ½ years. As a professional, he was a forklift operator and an Inventory Specialist for many years and retired in 2011. He loved to travel and take cruises with his wife Carolyn.

Andy later accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior after moving to Atlanta, Georgia. He was a ministry leader for Celebrate Recovery, a faith-based recovery group based on the teachings from the Beatitudes. There he leaves a legacy of love and respect for those he shepherded while on the road to recovery. He was particularly proud of his Volunteer of the Year award he earned while serving at Mercy Seed/New Mercies Christian Church. He was recognized for his Community service at The Georgia State House of Representatives.

He also coached youth baseball and football in the Scottsdale community with his youngest son Patrick for several years. One of Andy's favorite past times was to cheer on his favorite NFL team, the Philadelphia Eagles! He also loved taking his grandkids Maxine and Eric Jr. to baseball and basketball games.

He leaves behind his children: Lisa Hughes (Josephus Hughes), Nicole Chanel-Bullock (Roderick Bullock), Eric Harrison (Melissa Harrison), Patrick Harrison. Grandchildren: Maxine, Eric Jr., Leon III, Dominique Rashanda, Keyana, Aaliyah, and Josephus Jr. Andy also leaves a host of loved ones: aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, and countless friends to cherish his memory

“ My sincere condolences and prayers to Carolyn, family, and friends. It's been 18 years since meeting Harrison, whom I lovingly referred to as "Bruh" because he was my big brother away from my family. I recall him always being available for me and my children...encouraging, helping, and praying for us. God has called an Angel home and I will miss him. Rest in Heaven, Bruh. 💕

“ Sending my prayers and condolences to you Carolyn and the entire family. I will always remember Mr. Harrison's smile and his willingness to go above and beyond to assist at the Mercy Seed when he could. Mr. Harrison volunteered to get up early each opening day and go to Publix and get our donated breads. No one wanted that duty but he didn't mind because the soldier in him was used to early rising. To my fellow veteran, R/H and take your rest.

Sincerely,
Janice Harris (U.S. Navy retired)
